

LIII.

If the Respondent dies, or is summoned to Parliament as a Member of the Senate, or if the House of Commons have resolved that his seat is vacant, any person entitled to be a Petitioner under the Act, in respect of the Election to which the Petition relates, may give notice of the fact in the County, or City and County, or Electoral District, by causing such notice to be published in at least one newspaper published therein, if any, and by leaving a copy of such notice signed by him, or on his behalf, with the Returning Officer, and a like copy with the Clerk of the Election Court.

LIV.

The manner and time of the Respondent giving notice to the Election Court that he does not intend to oppose the Petition, shall be by delivering notice thereof, in writing, at the office of the Clerk of the Election Court, signed by the Respondent, six days before the day appointed for trial, exclusive of the day of leaving such notice.

LV.

Upon such notice being left at the office of the Clerk of the Election Court, he shall forthwith notify the Judge assigned to try the Petition, and also send a copy thereof by the post to the Petitioner or his agent, and to the Sheriff, who shall cause the same to be published in the County, City and County, or Electoral District.

LVI.

The time for applying to be admitted as a Respondent in either of the events mentioned in the 45th Section of the Act, shall be within ten days after such notice is given as hereinbefore directed; or such further time as the Court or one of the Election Judges may allow.

LVII.

Costs shall be taxed by the Clerk of the Election Court, or by his Deputy specially appointed, upon the rule of Court or Judge's order by which the costs are payable; and costs when taxed may be recovered by attachment or execution issued upon the rule of Court ordering them to be paid. If payable by order of a Judge, then by making such order a rule of Court in the ordinary way, and issuing an attachment or execution upon such rule, against the person by whom the costs are ordered to be paid, or against his goods and chattels; or in case there be money in Court available for the purpose, then, to the extent of such money, by order of the Election Court or of one of the Election Judges.

The office fees payable for inspection, office copies, enrolment and other proceedings under the Act, and these rules, shall be the same as those payable for like proceedings according to the practice of the Supreme Court.
