The brig Leipzig, arrived in port on Sunday with loss of main mast. The fine ship Crusader, Larmour, which sailed hence on the 25th May for Liverpool, put back on Friday last, with loss of both anchors and chains, and went up to Black's boom. She had only proceeded as far as Coude's Island, not having a fair wind since she left. A brig is reported wrecked on Whit Island Reef, belonging to Worlington or Sunderland—name unknown.

MONTREAL, 2nd June.—The Canada reports that the St. George, on her way down, broke one of her shafts, and transferred her passengers and freight to the Charlevoix, at Three Rivers. The St. George is coming up with one wheel, for the purpose of being repaired.

DIED.

Yesterday, suddenly, by an apoplectic stroke, Mr. Laurent Amiot, goldsmith, an old and respectable inhabitant of this City. At the patronage house of St. Eustache, on the 25th ultimo, aged 77, Mrs. widow Paul Papin, formerly of Deschambault.

Ten o'clock.—The steamer St. George has just arrived from Montreal, bringing important intelligence received at New-York by the steamer Great Eastern, which made the passage in thirteen days! We shall issue a supplement containing the particulars about one o'clock.
