ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Through long ages of sorrow, which seem never ending,
We have been true to our Faith and the land of our birth;

And Erin thy sons with hearts filled with emotion,
And burning with such patriotism no fear can dismay,

For the land of the Shamrock this St. Patrick's Day,
A. J. McDONOUGH,
Toronto, March, 1903.

Presentation to Mr. J. Scully

(From The Manitoba Free Press.)
Mr. J. Scully, chief clerk in the general superintendent's department of the Canadian Pacific Railway here, received the congratulations and well wishes of his associates at the depot yesterday afternoon on his departure from the sad life of bachelorhood to the ranks of the Benedictines.

As a token of the high regard in which Mr. Scully is held, he was waited on late in the afternoon by a full score of the chief clerks and staff at the depot. Mr. Theo. Hunt, assistant solicitor of the company, on behalf of the staff, expressed to Mr. Scully his bride the sincere wishes which they have for their future happiness and prosperity, and asked Mr. Scully to accept as a token of their regard a very handsome onyx clock, suitably inscribed, also a set of candelabra and a pair of military brushes with monogram engraved.

A Stubborn Cold or Bronchitis.

Yields more readily to Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil than to anything that you can take; and if persistently used a few days, will break up the cold. When you awake in the night choked up and coughing hard, take a dose of the Emulsion, and you will get immediate relief, where no cough medicine will give you relief.

French Government Hounding a Nun.

Letters which have passed between the Mayor of Manneville, in the Eure, and the Prefect of the Department, throw a curious light upon the situation created in France by the policy of persecution adopted by M. Combes.

By your letter of the 25th January you have ordered me to transmit a certain notice to the nuns which formerly resided here. I had the honor to inform you that, in consequence of previous communications from you, the nuns in question had left Manneville.

PEN PICTURE OF JOHN REDMOND

(By Justin McCarthy in The Outlook.)

John Edward Redmond is one of the leading men in the House of Commons just now. He is one of the very few really eloquent speakers of whom the House can boast. His is, indeed, of a kind but rarely heard in either House of Parliament during recent years.

Redmond has already been some twenty years in the House of Commons. He was very young when first chosen to represent an Irish constituency in the House.

In general life, in politics, and statesmanship, it is not the men of culture and moral integrity that are sought for promotion.

that National party which had been formed not long before under the guidance of Charles Stewart Parnell.

THE MARKET REPORTS.

There was very little doing at the St. Lawrence Market to-day, all receipts being light on account of the threatening bad weather.

In Four Hospitals in Montreal
But the Doctors could not cure Mr. Cloutier—Said he would never be well again—after six years of suffering and helplessness he was cured by

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

The case of Mr. Simon Cloutier, shoemaker, 110 Lagachetiere street, Montreal, deserves more than passing notice, because his case was unusually severe.

For six long years Mr. Cloutier was an invalid, unable to attend to his work, and much of this time was spent in the hospitals of Montreal.

For six years I was not able to work, my nerves were all unstrung, and my digestion bad. I had severe attacks of headache, could not sleep, and suffered with shooting pains in the small of my back.

The only real trouble that can ever come to us is remorse at our own evil deeds, and this is the only trouble which we have in our power to avoid.

The real blessing, mercy, satisfaction, is not in the having or lack of merely outward things, but in the consciousness that the true sources of life and happiness are deeper than all these.
