RCH 8, 1902. and Evictions.

respondent of a daily says :attaches great sigvictions of the tenms on Lord De Roscor non Counefusal to pay rent. ake a fierce Parliaover the matter. chairman of the ry Party, said to of the Associated y are forty tenants it many hundreds being proceeded ntry thereabouts is who patrol the light, force theme's houses, and in a reign of terror. been peaceable so beedings of the Govextraordinary that seling anxious lest all the trouble is refusal to face the d of the Irish peolegislation giving rs to buy out Irish us restore the land ole. Lord Dillon's s next to that of was bought out by , and the tenants and are paying fifrent than formerly. tenants naturally ewise, but Lord De sell on any terms. instead of endeavsettlement, poured olice."

ne former chairman liamentary Party, with every word utmond. The trouble, moment confined involves a principle to Ireland. If the as succeed it will be as Government to our claims for the ement of the Irish The very existence on, and the whole sh national movely affected by the ding on the De boring estates.

nquiries.

were amang the into Canadian trade Canadian Governondon during the ruary 10th :-importing grained shes to correspond tanneries producing were among the inned and dried fruits y a provision and n Liverpool. firm desires to get ion with importers stile machinery in nt in the Midlands of Bradford and s is open to act as g agent for Cana-the trade.

ng an extensive ex-grocery and confecnd having facilities ge agency business, from Canadian firms horse-clothing of le-girths, knee-caps, the In the current number of the "Amwas composed to a much greater It is the relation of the parish priest to the conference. The ques-There is no class of public servants Christian army. ican Catholic Quarterly Review ' extent, than at present, of men of No other mission at the Cathedral that works harder than the letter ere is a very timely article, from limited education, he thus deals tion should not be avoided were it carriers and none that is so poorly was subjected to so trying an expee pen of Thomas Dwight, of Har-rd Medical School, on the spewith the social alteration that mopossible to do so, for the support of rience as the present one, and yet dern times have operated. He says none aas had more substantial re Their duties are such as can be the parish priests is essential to "A great change has come over social conditions since that time. cial question of "The Trials the movement. At present there is sults, so far as known at present. performed only by intelligent, pains Needs of the Society of St. Vincent great variation in the relations of The number of those who have been taking men, and men of unimpeach de Paul." The writer does not pre-Municipal help to the poor has the pastors and the conferences. As either rehabilitated in grace or brought to hear the Church by the able honesty, since many letters containing money and things of vatend to tell either the story of how spread and increased wonderfully. It rule, the best conferences are the Society, so well known in the is generally distributed with no secefforts of the mission preachers exat present doing a those that are in close touch with lue pass through their hands. world to-day, was first founded, nor tarian discrimination. If some one ceeds all expectation. the pastor, who is also the It is Those who have noted our local to trace its development or two good old souls of a foundly gratifying to know that the tual director, who makes it a point letter carriers struggling through throughout the years of its exist generation left certain sums for the to attend the meetings frequently seed has not fallen upon barren the snow and slush during the ence. Yet, he tells us that in conbenefit of Protestant widows and and who is familiar with the regu places, but has already yielded cent blizzard were struck with the nection with its original aim : spinsters, the statement that the replenteous harvest. It is these things lations and the spirit of the Socie arduous nature of the work. The Four facts stand out: the foundty. As a rule the worst are those ligious question does not enter into which prove before men that our bill introduced by Representative municipal relief is none the less in which the pastor takes no interers were laymen, they were young, Holy Church is the one Living William Alden Smith, of Michigan. they were men of education. they practically true. Should the Socie est. Almost equally unsatisfactor Church; it is not blood that courses proposes to increase the pay of the chose works of charity as the evity of St. Vincent de Paul suddenly to one having in mind the tradithrough the veins of any imitators carriers in the larger cities. dence of the Divine origin and mis-sion of the Church. How well indisappear from the face of the earth, tions of the Society is another type which style themselves Churches; it Starting with six hundred dollars it would probably require not even of conference which nevertheless is only ichor. salary for the first year it advances spired was their choice, how wona year for affairs in this commumay do fair work. It is that gradually until in the fourth year derful their success is not to be disnity to be so readjusted that the which the members are but the agents of the pastor, with no more RIGOTED PROTESTANT PRESS and thereafter it becomes twelve cussed here, but did space permit, merely material wants of the poor might be well met. On the one -The "Catholic Columbian," of Columbus, O., where the notori-ous Magaret Shepherd recently dehundred dollars. Bad men must the story of the development of initiative or responsibility than erweeded out before reaching the their works from visiting the poor hand, cities and towns might give ourth year, and a hundred dollars rand boys. at their homes to the carrying "A crucial point in the discussion more: on the other, the money which on livered a series of her vile lectures a month is not too much for good of charitable works of all kinds directly or indirectly comes to the is this : admitting that the Society against muns and priests, in refer ones. The bill should pass. would be well worth the telling. It conferences from the parish priests might be distributed through other is a lay society, and assuming that ring to the bigoted action of the particularly to be noted that secular daily press, says :--"Then the action of at least two ABOUT STRIKES. - Here it is composed of good material, worked not merely to relieve y suffering, but to make the what on the one hand is the limit statistics about strikes in New bodily to the activity of the conference of the daily papers-The "Journal" York State :-poor better in all ways, and that the spiritual works of charity were prominent in their plan." and on the other what is the limit Then he asks the very pertinent question, "would there be no lose?" and makes this answer :-and "The Press"-also struck us to The total number of disputes recto the pastor's responsibility for it? It is hard to define these limits the heart. These newspapers were orded in nine months from January the near. Inese newspapers were appealed to by the most represent-ative Catholics of Columbus to add nothing to the notoriety of the Shepherd creature, to give no aid 1st to September 30th, was 126, in-"On the contrary, the loss would be frightful; first of all to the mem-bers. Their loss in opportunity to for all cases and under all circum-stances, but a general answer should present no difficulty. Theoretically volving 649 firms or establis The writer states that his person-al knowledge of the Society is limand 44,823 employees out of 62,536 the number employed before the dis-

Last week a series of commemoramids that stand on the desert's rim by the far away Nile. Like those tive festivities took place in Paris, pyramids, his wonderful mental which lasted five days. It is not structures are merely the mausole my purpose to dwell upon the deums of the decaying and the dead tails; but I will quote the cable rethe shells that contain the perishport of the first day's ceremonies. able, the repulsive, the false: the se oulchores of exterior artistic beauty It runs thus :that contain the noxious odors of Paris, Feb. 26 .- The series of festivities to celebrate the centenary moral and irreligious putrifaction of the birth of Victor Hugo, which In a word, viewed from the purely literary standpoint Hugo was will last until Sunday next, opened with a grand ceremony within the child of genius; from every other Pantheon, under the auspices of the Government. President Loubet, M. plane-the loftier, the sacred, eternally meritorious level- he was Waldeck-Rousseau, the premier, and nerely a perverter of human thoughts and a perfectly equipped the other members of the Cabinet, the members of the Senate and the enemy of man's salvation. Chamber of Deputies, representative such, the ceremonies above describdelegations from the institute and ed were in perfect accord with the the other state bodies, including the paganism of his life, the fruitlessleading lights of art, science and ness of his marvellous productions, literature in France, and deputaand the hollowness of all his achieve tions from the various lycees and ments. educational institutions were pre-A SAD SPECTACLE. - To any sent. The ceremony began shortly after ten in the morning, and was con-cluded at 11.45 a.m. The programme included eulogistic orations by M. Leygues, Minister of Public instruction, and M. Hanotaux, president of the institute; recitals of several of Victor Hugo's poems by members of the Comedie Francaise, and the rendering of hymns, based on Hugo's works, by M. Delmas, of the Opera, and a choir of 180 men The band of the Reand women. publican Guards and an orchestra, numbering 100 persons, performed the instrumental part of the exer-

The scene within the Pantheon was most imposing and full of color, owing to the brilliant toilettes of the ladies and the uniforms of the officials. In all the public schools of France the day was celebrated by lectures on the life of France's national poet and by readings from his works by the professors.'

spirits of men, who base their fu-HUGO'S GENIUS .- That Victor ture, their happiness, and their re-Hugo was a literary genius is be-yond all dispute. He was a marvel nown upon the acquisition of a place in the godless, soulless, prayerless, home of the two-fold death of versatility, and, in many instances, his works evidence a pro-The glitter of lights, all electric foundness of thought, or rather of though they be, can never dazzle observation: his studies were from the vision of the departed poet; the the book of nature, rather than the splendor of ornaments, drooping volume of logic; his ordinarily powflags, and graphic emblems, bring no pulsation of delight to the erful reason was so over-shadowed, so swayed, so suppressed, so be-numbed by his towering imaginaheart of the silent one: the rounded phrases of a delightfully constructed oration can, in no way, awaken the pride, nor flatter the vanity, of the tion and his unbridled sentimentality, that splendid vocation for good entirely lost-to himself, to the dead master of that same world, and to the inimitable cause of Truth. He built up stately tongue. No word of God, thought of the soul, no reflection ments of literary grandeur, upon the only real and unperishable immortality; hollowness, weariness, that loom upon the horizon of the nineteenth century, like the pyra- silence and death. St. Vincent de ited to the New England States but that he believes the same conditions exists in different parts of the world. We perfectly agree with him, at least as far as the theme he has Paul Society, selected goes, that what applies to such a society in the Eastern States equally applies thereto here and elsewhere. After pointing out that in the earlier times the duties of the

THE TRUE WITNESS AND CATHOLIC OHRONICLE

do good works, to help to save souls as well as bodies, win to graces, to gain indulgences, can be reckoned by no human bookkeeper. The loss to the poor, though not in dollars and cents, would be equally appalling; the words of kindness and encouragement, the Christian sympathy, the baptisms of children, reformation of sinners, the families held together, the tottering faith supported. Who shall estimate the loss were these things left undone?"

Following up this train of thought we have these two deductions :-

"First, that the aim and works of the Society are essentially superna-tural, done for the love of God, our own sanctification and that of our neighbor; secondly, that with change ing conditions the importance of almsgiving is less and that there is more and more demand for works requiring greater intelligence. This is the era of scientific charity; the name is new; but though St. Vin cent de Paul would have expressed it differently, the idea of well-thought-out instead of emotional charity is one of his own."

As

person, impregnated with Christian sentiment, having the remotest be-essing a faith in the immortality of the soul, surely no more depressdescription of the commemorative eremonies of the Pantheon. The very name Pantheon, is suggestive of the paganism of ancient Rome; it is the embodiment, in stone and in mortar, of the absolute negation of God; it is the charnel-house, where in the disbelievers in eternal immortality vainly seek to secure an earthly immortality that is a self-contradiction. All that surrounds the poor mortal dust that once contained the mind and soul of Hugo, ultimate oblivion that must, sooner or later, come to the greatest, as to the lowliest, of human beings.

"Les Miserables" were not half, nay,

can

French

no

the hundredth part as miserable, in rags and in ignorance, as are preach the inevitable decay and the ing spectacle could be afforded than one described in the foregoing lief in an existence hereafter,

the

After speaking of the various out side societies, whose work and aim seem to be proselytism, the author gives us something frank, clear and much needed, in the way of advice. It is an appeal to the younger men and as we have no desire to encroach upon the complete chain of argument, in his article, with any comments of an unnecessary or su perfluous kind, we simply give the full extract, and call special attention to it. He says :-

"Thus it is inevitable that our members should come into contact with those of other creeds, and most desirable that they should meet them with credit. For this purpose they must meet them as equals It is best to admit frankly that the great majority of our members are not up to the requirements of this work. Let me try to make myself perfectly plain on this point. Neither riches nor education are necessary to make admirable members Some of the best I have ever known earned their bread by manual labor The personal friendship of some of these has been and is very dear to Were all such as they, the Some. ciety would be very different from what it is and much better. But even then there would be the admis sion to make that there are works both within and without the Society for which they have not the education. This is no more a reflection on them than it would be to say that they are not clad in purple and fine linen. They have what is far better, true and humble hearts; but it does not follow that there is not need of men fitted for higher work. The Catholic body is much stronger than it was in the early days of the Society amongst us. Apart from accessions through conversions, the sons of former members have grown up with much better education than their fathers. There are large numbers of young Catholics rising to distinction in the professions and in business. Those in our ranks are relatively few. We have tried to get them, and some have accepted the invitation. Why not more?"

The main aim of the article before us seems to be the defining of the reepective positions of the parish priest, or spiritual director, and the society itself. This we can condense into two clear-cut passages. They run thus :

York "Herald," in an editorial renembers were more restricted than transform the obscure and the unand delicate question ghich practiference to letter carriers, says :to-day, and that the membership cally lies at the root of the matter considered into the flower of one might say that unless the conference should so lose its head as to introduce some custom prejudicial to faith and morals it can hardly go wrong in its charitable work; but practically its activity must be much more restricted. The conference must respect the wishes and the policy of the ordinary and of the rector in all matters. Catholic instinct, good feeling and common sense will be sufficient guides. The second question would be hard indeed to answer were the conference perfect, doing its work as well as it could be done, neglecting nothing it shouln undertake and aspiring to nothing it should not meddle with. But here below things do not go in that way, and the influence of the priest to guide, encourage and restrain, all without trenching on the rights of the president, cannot be It is under such overestimated. conditions that lay co-operation will be best developed, and that those most fitted for the work will be the most anxious for the chance to do it."

As it was not our purpose to either appreciate or criticise the article from which the foregoing extracts have been taken, and as space would not allow the reproduction of the text thereof, in full, we have merely taken such parts as appear to us of major importance and have summarized the extents, order not to break the chain. But we have no hesitation in saying that very much that is to be found in the above might easily find application in regard to many other Catholic societies, both benevolent and otherwise.

WEATHER AND MISSIONS .- On this subject the "Catholic Standard and Times," Philadelphia, remarks A most severe test of the sincerity of Catholic devotion has just been afforded in the recent visitation. All through the frightful weather the attendance in the Cathedral, where the Passionist Fathers are giving their mission, was enormous. Morn ing and evening, however the storm raged or the frost nipped, the de vout people hastened to avail themselves of the means of grace presented to them. We would ask any comfortable, easy-going lady or gentleman or a non-Catholic persuasion what would they think of a proposal to get out of bed at 5 o'clock in the morning, when the thermometerifs at zero and the streets crusted with treacherous veneer, in order to attend religious devotions - and this as a preliminary to a very long day of toil. Yet such is the habit of the thousands of humble workers who throng the Catholic missions not merely in this city, but in every large centre. Much is said of the falling-off in Catholic strength but while we have a sense of reli gion so overmastering, a faith so self-denying, no disappointments or drawbacks in other directions can justify despondency. It is an example that cannot fail to shame the weak-kneed and careless; and therefore those who afford it are blest in a double sense. They not only draw down upon themselves the re ward of those who mortify themselves and make sacrifices for the love of God, but they serve to encourage the indifferent and sham them into the way of Cheistian man Sweet, indeed, is the influ hood. ence of religion when it can thus to the dissemination of her impurities to the corruption of their readers, and to have some regard for the rights and feelings of their Catholic patrons. What did they do? They exploited her, made a sensa-tion of her arrest, treated her with as much consideration as if she were a respectable person, regarded as a matter of doubt the proofs of her vileness that were submitted to them, and scorned the request uphold the cause of morality made to them privately by some of the foremost priests and laymen of the Catholic body in Columbus. spon shall we forget the course of these papers to us in this affair.

INSULTS FOR ST. JOSEPH This month is dedicated to St. Joseph. Some magazines and newspapers, having in view the main chance have taken hold of the idea that it would be a clever thing to say something funny about the Saint. The "Catholic Mirror," Baltimore, points to one offender in this regard, none other than "Collier's Magazine." Our contemporary gives the remarks of the magazine as follows :---

"To gain all the benefits St. Jos eph can bestow upon you he must be made a present to you, and when handed to you he must be feet foremost in his case. These small sta tues can be bought at any Catholic book store for from five to twentyfive cents. Many women have pretty gold or silver case made for their tiny statues and attach them to their long chains. It is said that the Saint will bring you good luck and find a husband within a year. This latter clause, in the days of lightning divorces and marriages, may not be such a piece of good luck after all; but the Saint does his part. He promises a hus band, leaving the quality unmentioned, and he expects you to do yours in selecting a good man." This rot, says the "Catholic Miror," this distortion, this calumny deserves a severe rebuke, and it should be visited upon the offenders by every Catholic reader the publication may have.

GLEANINGS.

ASSISTED PASSAGES. - Of 1.-000,000 Swedes who have emigrated since 1850, 850,000 have gone to the United States, and of these only 5 per cent. have returned home. Returns show that from 70 to 80 per cent. of these people have gone to the United States on prepaid passages, while the balance who have paid their own fares have mostly joined friends or relatives.

MORE FINNS. - The Canadian 'Gazette'' says :- The large number of Swedish-speaking Finns from Russia who went out to the Ottawa Valley in 1884, and eventually settled at Sudbury, near the nickelmining districts, are now purchasing tickets freely and sending them home to bring their friends out.

COSTLY FUR.-The costliest fur is that of the sea otter. A single skin of this animal will fetch as much as $1,000.

THE MOSQUITO -The New Jerey Legislature has appropriated $10,000 to exterminate the mosquito. It may succeed in getting one mosquito killed for that.

LETTER CARRIERS. - The New "This brings us to a very difficult take the sting from poverty and pute. The number of active participants in strikes or lock-outs was 22,057, while 22,766 additional employees were thrown out of employment as the result of disputes. The duration of all disputes, measured by the aggregate number of workdays lost by employees, was 815,079 days, of which 497,446 days were lost by those directly and 317,-633 days by those indirectly affect-Of the 649 establishments involved, 504 suspended work for a longer or shorter period.

1.

RUSSIAN MEAT.-English and Russian capitalists are interested in plan to increase the exportation of Russian meat to England.

THE RECORDS of births, marriages and deaths for the State of New York during the last year were as follows : Births, 139,389 riages, 64,680; deaths, 131,788. The death-rate was eighteen per 1,000 population. The mortality was 7,-500 in excess of the average of the last five years, but the rate was the same as that of 1900. The 'infant mortality is unusually low, being 3,500 less than in 1900 and 2,500 less than the average of the last five years

A WELSH COLONY .- According the Canadian "Gazette" 500 Welshmen are leaving the Welsh Colony in Patagonia for the Northwest under encouragement of our Government.

A HINT .- Make an effort to send the name of one new subscriber to the "'True Witness'' this month.

Slang Phrases.

A learned German philologist has recently traced a number of these so-called slang phrases through half a dozen languages to their beginnings. Here is a partial list of them :-

"To give the cold shoulder."- It was once the custom in France, when a guest had outstayed his we!come, to serve him with a cold shoulder of mutton, instead of a hot roast, as a gentle hint for him to go.

"To kick the bucket."-The phrase dates back from the time of Queen Elizabeth. A shoemaker named Hawkins committed suicide by standing on a bucket placed on the table to raise himself to a convenient rafter. To kick the bucket was, of course, his last act on earth.

"Apple pie order."-A certain Hepzibah Merton, in Puritan times, was in the habit of baking two or three dozen apple pies every Saturday, which were to last her family through the week. She placed them in her pantry, labelling one or more for each day of the week. The pantry thus arranged was said to be in apple-pie order.

"A feather in one's cap."-It was once the custom in their wars with the Turks for the Hungarians to wear a feather in their caps for each Turk they had killed.

"Blackguards."-When the Horse Guards paraded in St. James's London, a crowd of hoot-Park, blacks always crowded about to black their boots and do other menial work. Those attendants at the guard mount have long gone by the name of "black guards.

"Deadhead."-At Pompeii people who gained admittance to an entertainment without paying for admission, were called 'dead-head," because the checks used for admission were small ivory death's heads.

(3

the	ess in Canada, and the	to importers of
va	a sudian

especting Canadian street-paving pur-or by a selling agent ence in placing such nglish market.

ine

chair-stocks, backs, , ask for names of rters of such goods

t of England woollen re looking out for a to represent them also desire to get wholesale houses in irchasing best cloths. n house exporting cal fittings is desirits business with reason why men are s is that they divide attention among a objects and pursuits.

titled person to every ersons in Russia.

er leave God out of s, or he will leave us An old Well Becomes Hot.

The people of Woodburn, Ky., have been greatly puzzled for several days by the strange action of a well in that town. The water in the well has suddenly become hot without any apparent cause. The citizens do not know whether the phenomenon is due to chemical action of some kind, or to heat from the interior of the earth. The well is about fifty feet deep, walled up and about three feet in diameter, and was built by the Kirby Milling Company. Since the water became heated it has risen up to within ten feet of the top of the well, and is perfectly clear. The temperature is said to be about 100 degrees.-Cincinnati Enquirer.

Reep your company or none.

Avoid temptation through fear you may not withstand it.

Save when you are young to sp when you are old.