GOD SEES NOT AS MAN SEES.

No; for "man looketh on the outward appearance, but God looketh on the heart." Our friends very often make mistakes about us. They are very apt to think that when our outward behavior is all right, we are all right inside. If asked what sort of children they are, such a teacher might very likely say, "Excellent! they are all that I could wish." much in earnest those young people are!" But God may know that while you seem to be praying, you are not thinking of Him at all, but of what you are going to do to-morrow or next day, and many other things. You are really mocking Him, though on your knees, and He is saying of you "They are worshipping Me with their lips, and with their bodies, but their hearts are far from Me."—Parish Visitor.
