Life and Letters of Stopford Brooke

By Lawrence Pearsall Jacks, M.A., Hon. LL.D., D.D., Principal of Manchester College, Oxford. The aim of the writer has been to present the picture of a unique personality which played a notable part in the religious, literary and artistic life of the Victorian and post-Victorian periods. Cloth, 2 volumes, 718 pages, $5.00.

The Men Who Died in Battle

By the Rev. J. Paterson-Smyth, D.D., author of "The Gospel of the Hereafter." The reading of this little book will bring light and comfort into many a darkened home. Price 35 cents.

The Hope of Our Calling

By the Rev. Prof. Robert Law, D.D., author of "The Grand Adventure" "The Emotions of Jesus," etc. Price $1.25.

Rupert Brooke: A Memoir

By Edward Marsh. This official Memoir consists largely of extracts from the poet's unpublished letters and a few poems not contained in his "Collected Poems." Cloth, $1.25.

The Shorter Bible

The New Testament. Translated and arranged by Charles Foster Kent. The aim of this new translation is to express the message of the Bible in simple, dignified, modern English. Cloth, $1.00.

Foundations

A Statement of Christian Belief in Terms of Modern Thought. By Seven Oxford Men—B.H. Streeter, R. Brook, W. H. Moberly, R. G. Parsons, A. E. J. Rawlinson, N. S. Talbot, W Temple. Cloth, 538 pages, $3.75.

Essays on the Early History of the Church and the Ministry

By Various Writers, edited by H. B. Swete, D.D. Cloth, 445 pages, $4.00.

The Meaning of Faith

By Harry Emerson Fosdick, author of "The Meaning of Prayer." Price $1.00.

Rays of Dawn

By the Right Rev. A. F. Winnington Ingram, D.D., Lord Bishop of London. Price $1.00.

My Brave and Gallant Gentleman

By Robert Watson. The wild, free life of the Canadian Northwest, forms a fitting background to this romance of a strong man, and a brave woman. Price $1.50.

Home Fires In France

By Dorothy Canfield. There is no bursting shrapnel, nor roar of guns; for this is not a war book, but the story of the French who have kept the home fires burning, and of some Americans who have helped. Price $1.35.
