Some interesting gifts for the new Liverpool Cathedral are announced. The Liverpool Ladies' Embroidery Association have offered to provide all the embroideries for the Cathedral requirements (a gift of at least £4,000) in addition to the ornaments for the Holy Table. Mrs. Marke Wood has promised the reredos, in memory of the late Mr. Marke Wood. Sir Alfred Jones is also to be commemorated, Mrs. Pinnock, his sister, having promised one of the large windows in the choir as a memorial. A donation of £1,000 has been received from Mrs. Morrison to provide a marble floor for the choir in memory of her late husband.

"The mystery of the great sphinx has been cleared up at last," said Dr. Reisner. "The final proof that the sphinx temple was the tomb of Chephren has been delivered. Exactly those characteristics found in the sphinx were found in the statues of Mycerinus, which were dug up in Egypt. The sphinx is nothing but the body of a lion with the head of the king reigning at the time it was built. The great sphinx is the guardian of the sacred precincts of the second pyramid. The head is the portrait of Chephren, the king who built the second pyramid, and whose artists carved the guardian sphinx on a knob of natural rock."

A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.
