Excavations are in progress at the ancient church of St. Bartholomew the Great, Smithfield, with a view to tracing the ground plan of the Augustinian Monastery which once stood on this site. What appears to be a portion of a very old wall has already been revealed.

Three beneficed clergymen in the diocese of Peterborough, are still in the parishes where they were fifty years ago. They are the Rev. R. C. Collins, vicar of Easton Neston; the Rev. F. M. Stopford, rector of Titchmarsh, and the Rev. E. Thorpe, rector of Burton Overy.

The flavor of tea is contained in an essential oil. With age the oil decays and the agreeable aroma and flavor of fine tea is destroyed.

Tea keeps better in sealed lead packets than it does in open chests or canisters, but it deteriorates, more or less under any circumstances. Fresh tea is as necessary to a successful tea trade as fresh butter is to a successful butter trade. No wholesaler or retailer should keep a pound of tea in his stock for more than four months, yet with some, the fashion is to keep it for years, during every day of which it is deteriorating.
