

ENGLISH SOCIETY GOSSIP.

Lady Gordon-Cumming has given birth to a daughter.

During the Queen's absence on the continent her suite is to consist of Lady Churchill, Sir Henry Ponsonby, Sir Fleetwood Edwards, and Miss Phipps. Dr. James Reid goes as medical attendant, and there will be about forty-five servants.

A marriage is arranged and will shortly take place between Colonel Herbert Eaton and Miss Trench.

It will be remembered that Colonel Eaton went out in command of the banished battalion of the Grenadier Guards, and now brings back an American bride, for it was whilst in the Bermudas that he first met Miss Trench. At present the prospective bride and bridegroom are at Beaulieu, but the marriage will take place shortly after Easter in London.

There is also a report that Lord Sheffield is bringing back an Australian wife, but this as yet is only report.
