C A P . X I .

An Act to remove doubts as to the validity of Marriages solemnized in Lower Canada by the Religious Society of Friends commonly called Quakers, and for other purposes.

[Assented to 23rd April, 1860.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the validity of certain Marriages solemnized in Lower Canada between persons professing the Religious Faith of the Society of Friends commonly called Quakers, and it is necessary to remove all such doubts: Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows:

Quakers marriages in L. C. declared valid.

1. All Marriages heretofore solemnized in Lower Canada according to the rites, usages and customs of the Religious Society of Friends commonly called Quakers, and all Marriages hereafter to be solemnized in Lower Canada between persons professing the Faith of the said Religious Society of Friends,
