The repeated curling match between The repeated curling match between Thamesville and Tilbury, on Tuesday evening, resulted as usual, in a com-plete defeat for Tilbury. The curlers encroached upon the skaters' and encroached upon the skaters' and hockyites' portion of the rink, and a regular wordy war occurred, which rose to such a pitch that the riot act was read by F. E. Nelles. A policeman was also called, and dark threats are hanging over the heads of some of the ringleaders of the riot. Some of the ringleaders of the riot. Some of the ladies, in the cause of peace turned off the lights.

A patriotic meeting will be held in Valetta town hall next Monday evening, at which Maj. J. B. Rankin and others will give addresses.
