This Case in Hand

Is a case of repair work. A watch that could go but wouldn't go was made to go, the owner thought it was a case of no good, but I diagnosed the case at a cost of $1.50 and put it right, and it has gone ever since. It yours is a stop watch bring it in and when I am through with it, it will be a go watch. All kinds of repairing and best workmanship.

THE FAST TRAINS TO CHICAGO.

New York Central's Express Service Added to.

George H. Daniels, General Passenger Agent of the New York Central Road, talking yesterday of the company's fast train service, said that, in addition to the new twenty-hour train, there are now four twenty-four-hour trains to Chicago, and two Empire State expresses daily. The Twentieth Century Limited, twenty-hour train, leaves New York every day at 2:45 p. m. and arrives at Chicago the next morning at 9:45. The Lake Shore Limited leaves New York at 5:30 every afternoon, arriving in Chicago the next afternoon at 4:30. The Fast Mail, a fine twenty-four-hour train, leaves New York at 8:45 a. m. every day, reaching Chicago the next morning at 7:50. By both the Lake Shore and the Michigan Central, the noonday Chicago Limited leaves New York at 1 p. m., reaching Chicago by the Lake Shore the next morning at 11:50, a twenty-four-hour train, really twenty-three hours and fifty minutes. The Detroit and Chicago Limited leaves New York at 4 p. m., reaching Chicago the next afternoon, a fourth twenty-four-hour train. From the New York Times.

Note.—The New York Central also has 15 trains a day between New York and Buffalo and Niagara Falls; 6 trains a day between New York and St. Louis and Cincinnati; 4 trains a day between New York and Montreal and by its Boston and Albany Division 4 trains a day between New York and Boston via Springfield.

OUTING SUITS....

It is well to remember, the closer a man dresses to real gentility, the more strictly must he heed the prescribed and adapted requirements of dress. The better a man dresses the closer he is observed and criticised. These summerish negligee "feather-weights" fill a necessity, but don't mislead. Like physics, they fit a purpose—and that's all. Double or single-breasted coat, either will be correct. Half-lined or skeleton. Hip-waisted trousers with four loops for belt. Made generously full with a permanent turn up of 2 inches.

Homespun, Crashes, Flannels and all those cool Zephyr Cloths in every conceit of weave. Shades from spotless white to black, stripes, plaids and plain monotone patterns.

THE CLUMSY MAN.

You Can Never Be Sure of What His Next Break Will Be.

The great virtue about the really clumsy man is that he never exhausts his capabilities. When you think that the bedrock is reached, there is still a lower depth. If a detrimental relative should exist, the clumsy man asks after his health with great particularity and will not be satisfied until he receives a full and detailed reply. Should there be any incident in your past which everybody has generously agreed to forget it is the clumsy man who seizes the one, the inevitable opportunity, when the club is at its fullest and says loudly: "Somebody was talking the other day about that unfortunate little affair of yours in '95. Now tell me!"

When on meeting him you say casually and with no desire for information, "How are you?" he insists on giving you complete data, and he is as full of small complaints as a refractory pauper. It is only fair to add that he will ask affectionately after the colds of yesterday, and his favorite locale for this is at the corner of a drafty street. He might be subsidized by influenza or he might get a commission on sore throats from his eagerness to plan you into the most dangerous position that can be discovered.

One desires an adequate amount of sympathy in distress, but our man always goes a little beyond this point. You are growing thin, and he says that you are wasting away to a shadow. You are growing stout, and he tells an unamusing anecdote about apoplexy. He can be more critical than a half-dresser if occasion gives the least excuse.

A UNIQUE DORMITORY.

One That is Owned by the University of the South.

Dean Hoffman was noted for crafty impulses, which his large income allowed him to indulge in. Some years ago the dean invested heavily in land in a small southern town which was then enjoying a "boom" period. Among the dean's other investments was a beautiful little hotel, exquisitely appointed and perfect in every detail. After awhile the "boom" fell through, and the little hotel became a losing investment.

At this time the chancellor of the University of the South, an old friend of Dean Hoffman, was on a hunting trip with him in the mountains of North Carolina.

"We are badly in need of a dormitory down at Suwanee," said the chancellor.

"Yes," said Hoffman and sat thinking for a moment. "Well, you can have the hotel building down at B—" naming the town. "You can take it to pieces and move it to Suwanee. It ought to make a pretty little dormitory."

The chancellor was greatly pleased and made all the arrangements to move the hotel, when, to his astonishment, the citizens of the town obtained an injunction against its removal on the grounds that the hotel in that way was public property and that to remove it would leave the town without any hotel accommodations. A legal fight followed, but the university won out in the end. So the University of the South revels in the luxury of the most unique dormitory in the world.
