Yesterday, Thanksgiving, was pretty generally observed in Wolfville. Nearly all the business places were closed, and quiet prevailed. There was a service at 11 o'clock in the church, where an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. J. D. Spidell.

The Senior Mission Society had an open meeting in the Baptist church on Saturday, Nov. 20th, at 7.30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend. A good programme, including vocal and violin solos will be given. A silver collarette will be taken to help educate a child in India.

Success is generally well merited, and the VIM TEA people attribute the success of 'VIM TEA' more to its superior quality than to any other one thing. Lovers of good Tea will find in 'VIM' a Tea pleasing to the taste, rich in color and flavor, and void of that bitter, herby taste so noticeable in many of the Teas on the market.

It's delicious.—McGregor's Butter Scotch. Fresh stock received at Parker's Pharmacy.

Nothing is more conducive to winter comfort than a warm suit or overcoat,—if it fits well. But if the garment is too tight anywhere it checks the circulation and if it is too loose the wind blows in. Good fit in a coat is even more essential than good material. If you want both read the adv. of the Wolfville Clothing Co. in this paper.

The Chrysanthemum show at Freeman's Nursery last week drew a large number of visitors, among whom was a representative of THE ACADIAN. There were on exhibition a profusion of beautiful blooms in almost every conceivable shade. Mr. Freeman, who began business in Wolfville a few years ago, deserves great credit for the manner in which he takes the work in hand. It is a great convenience to be able to get the product of a hot-house without going out of town, and we hope to see Mr. Freeman's enterprise generously patronized.

APPRENTICES WANTED.—Two or three young ladies to learn the Millinery Business. A good chance for the right ones, apply to Miss Clarke at CHAMBER'S MILLINERY DEPT.

A very sad and distressing accident occurred at the home of Mr. Hugh Kennedy, Grand Pre, on Friday morning last. Mrs. Kennedy was getting ready to do some washing, and had just emptied a boiler-full of hot water into a tub on the floor. A little boy, a year old, was sitting near in a rocking chair, and while the mother was replacing the boiler on the stove the child pitched head-first into the tub. It was rescued as quickly as possible, but had been so severely burned that, after suffering for nine hours, the little life became extinct. The funeral took place on Sunday, Rev. Dr. Dill officiating. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved parents. The child was one of twins and was an exceedingly bright little fellow.

The Arlington Quartette. A good audience greeted the Arlington Male Quartette in College Hall last Friday evening, and no one was disappointed. Messrs. A Catalogue Worth Possessing. People interested in jewellery and silverware should have a copy of the handsome catalogue recently issued by M. S. Brown & Co., Jewellers, Halifax, N. S. In the beautiful half-tone and colour engravings, which literally fill the book from cover to cover, one can see the rings, brooches, watches, clocks, silverware, etc., that are in best taste to-day, and attached to them the prices, and numbers by which to order. The book is worth getting, if for no other purpose, to see how nice it is, and we understand that M. S. Brown & Co. will mail it free of charge to anyone sending their name and address. The production reflects well upon the firm's enterprise.

TO THE PUBLIC.—I wish to inform those who are thinking of getting a suit or overcoat that I have secured a man who has had a wide experience in the Tailoring Business. Mr. Murray has been employed by the leading establishments in the United States and Western-Canada. With such a competent man, I am prepared to give a better class of work than has yet been done in this town. Why go elsewhere and have your work 'rush-ed' up by apprentices? As for prices I do not intend any to undersell me. All I ask, is a trial, and we will convince you we are still in the lead. This is not merely Talk but Facts. GEO. A. CROZIER, Merchant Tailor.

HERB W. EDWARDS INJURED. Herb W. Edwards, of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and 'bruising his knees.' 'The next day,' he says, 'they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared.'
