Wolfville was favored on Sunday afternoon with a visit from representatives of the Salvation Army of Halifax. A very good band which accompanied them gave a number of selections which were much enjoyed by citizens. At the band-stand on Main street an address was given by one of the speakers and was listened to by quite a large gathering of citizens. A number of very well rendered vocal selections were also given.

Mr. Elias Curry has rented his house on Main street to Dr. and Mrs. Corey for the coming year during which he expects to be away from Wolfville. He will spend a month at Harborville and then proceed to Framingham, Mass., where he will visit his son Vernon and later will go south for the winter to visit at the home of his daughter, where Mrs. Curry is now staying. Mr. Curry is one of Wolfville's most highly esteemed residents, and many friends will join THE ACADIAN in wishing him a safe and pleasant trip.

Mrs. J. C. Hardy was given a pleasant "surprise party" last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. F. W. Patterson, on the eve of her departure for the West, where she will join Mr. Hardy, who has already been engaged in Home Mission work. She was presented with a purse of money from the Women's Bible Class, of which she has been the interesting and enthusiastic teacher for the past two years. Mrs. Hardy was also presented with a silver cream and sugar service by the ladies of the Women's Missionary Aid Society of which she has been a valued member during her residence in Wolfville.

During his recent visit to Nova Scotia Rev. E. M. Keirstead, D.D., contributed to the columns of the Windsor Tribune an interesting sketch of that town as he knew it nearly fifty years ago. From September, 1877, to October, 1882, Dr. Keirstead was the honored and esteemed minister of the Windsor Baptist church, and he is always warmly welcomed when he pays his annual visit to the Hants county shiretown. On leaving Windsor Dr. Keirstead came to Wolfville to join the faculty of Acadia University. Here as in Windsor he took a keen interest in community affairs and was a good friend of the local newspaper. His account of early times at Windsor, written wholly from memory, is an indication of his active co-operation in all the affairs of the town.

GLENN HUNTER, BESSIE LOVE IN NEW DRAMA

Mary Roberts Rinehart's Saturday Evening Post story, "The Altar on the Hill," is the foundation of Frank Lloyd's production of "The Silent Watcher," a First National picture with Glenn Hunter and Bessie Love, at the Orpheum next Monday and Tuesday.

The story deals with the efforts of Joe Roberts, a young secretary to John Steele, lawyer and politician, to protect his employer from scandal, to assume the burden of responsibility for a murder he knew nothing of, and to hold the faith of his wife. Those who have viewed the photoplay are of the opinion that it is one of the most brilliant displays of dramatic achievement in some time and that Hunter and Miss Love demonstrate extraordinary ability in the interpretation of the principal characters.

Hobart Bosworth, as Senator John Steele, and Alma Bennett, as Lily Elliott, a musical comedy soubrette, head the supporting cast which includes such other well known players as Gertrude Astor, DeWitt Jennings, Lionel Belmore, Geo. Nichols, Aggie Herring and Brandon Hurst.

LITTLE BILL

Little Bill is a source of annoyance and anxiety as well as expense to us. This should not be. It is you that should really be responsible for Little Bill. We refer to the Little Bill you forgot to pay. Perhaps when in town you wanted something else and forgot us altogether. Or again you did not want to leave your work, so phoned us and had the work or ad. charged, promising to send the money on first mail. Yet, though you may not have had an account with us, we charged it to oblige you. Remember we charged it to oblige you. Suppose the bill was only $1. If it was not paid in six months we lost 3c. in interest. Also it cost us 5c. to enter on our books. Now if we have to make out a bill it means another cost of 5c. so you see where our profit goes. Some of our accounts are three years old.

We are always ready to oblige our customers, but we want them to do their part. We not only have a right to the money, but we certainly need it. Please do not forget again. Send or bring it to us today. Thank you.
