

Run for help, Orwell—run as fast as you can—snapped Mr. Bruce.
Orwell shot down the path like a frightened hare and soon met those of their own people, who had heard the cry and were hurrying to the spot. The boy's startling tale made them run the faster, but all that could be done was to have the sufferers removed. A copious application of cold water brought Mrs. Bruce back to consciousness, and though laboring under a nervous shock of incalculable severity, she was able, with a little assistance to walk to the house. For Mr. Bruce and Adam two litters were speedily prepared, and they too were conveyed from the scene of the accident. Mr. Bruce in the midst of his own agony had not lost consideration for his faithful servant, who by his heroic devotion had saved himself from instant destruction at a fearful cost to himself, and ordered that he should be taken to the mansion-house also, but Adam pleaded so hard and so earnestly to be taken to the cottage that they could not refuse his request. Poor fellow, he knew he was dying, and wished to draw his last breath in his own home.

WALLACE'S ORCHESTRA.—The orchestra of Wallace's Theatre, New York, is famous for its extraordinary precision. This is due entirely to Thomas Baker, an Englishman, who has conducted it for years. Mr. Baker used to suffer terribly from rheumatism, but now is as supple and nimble as a schoolboy. He describes his freedom, as he ought, to GILES' LINIMENT LODES AMMONIA. Giles' Pills cures Biliousness. Sold by all druggists. Send for pamphlet, Dr. Giles, 120 West Broadway, N. Y. Trade size 50 cents.
