PURE WATER.

Last week Laborer wanted to know why the town rulers did not have our artesian well water analyzed before experimenting with it as a proposed source of water supply.

For Laborer's information we have been looking into the matter and find that some years ago Messrs. D. & J. Ritchie & Co. sent some of their well water to Prof. Best at St. John and that gentleman assured them that it was pure.

VALUABLE LUMBER.

A contemporary says that at one time the valley of the River Thames, between London and Chatham, was covered with magnificent black walnut trees, which in the early days were of no commercial value...

RUSSIAN RETALIATION.

The Russian Car is evidently determined to pursue a policy of retaliation against the United States. Like every other line of obstruction retaliatory laws are more easily enacted than moved.

MOVING PICTURES.

The London Imperial Moving Pictures has given four entertainments under the auspices of the Temple of Honor. It was the best series of moving picture ever shown in this city.

artificial obstruction to the course of trade or industry. The injury to the many will be far greater than the benefits to the few are actively alive to their own personal interests...

Mother

and child, run down—there are hundreds—lucky if you are not one. And what do you think they want? They want rest and a change, and can't get either. Pity to speak of it!

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD-LIVER OIL

is almost rest in itself! SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD-LIVER OIL. See how easy it is to get rest. SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD-LIVER OIL.

Your Hair. "Two years ago my hair was falling out badly. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and soon my hair stopped coming out."

The Advocate's Information Bureau. What's the use of making trouble when it's with you every day?

What's the use of doing things in the most inconvenient way? What's the use of hunting worry? What's the use of fret and stew?

I HAD RATHER have a fool to make me merry than experience to make me sad. —Shakespeare. STAYERS.

Why is the man in the moon like a corner lobster. Because the policeman can't move him. NOT SKILFUL. Tim Murphy, the comedian, saw an old colored woman sitting under an awning fanning herself when he was in Washington one summer.

"It's dreadfully hot, ain't it, mammy?" asked Murphy. "Deed it is chile," said the old woman—"deed it is. 'Taint right for it to be so hot this way. I tell you, 40 years ago, when the blessed Lord made the weather, we didn't have these stinging days, honey, no, 'deed we didn't; but now these biggy men up at this here weather office has she making of the weather they does send us anything they please, and they ain't skillful, chile, they ain't skillful."

BLUE PENCILING. The Tempus elongation between irragions seems to be somewhat strained' was the way a guide said it the other day. When asked to edit his speech he said: It is a long time between drinks.

"AWFULLY STUPID country, Switzerland! No wonder the precipices yawn!" —Heitere Welt. CAUSE OF HIS AWKWARDNESS.

He—At last we are alone, and we have an opportunity to speak. I have been seeking this moment for days and days, for I have something to say to you. She—Go on Mr. Harkins. He—I will. Miss Jones you perhaps have not noticed that at times I have been constrained, uneasy, even awkward in your presence, that I have had something on my mind that I felt I must say to you?

She (softly)—Yes. He—That constraint, that awkwardness, Miss Jones, was due to—due to— She—Go on, Mr. Harkins. He—Was due to the fact that I feared you were not aware that I am engaged to your mother.

IN TRAINING. How far is it to the next town? Ain't formed no opinion. Do you think it going to rain? Got no opinion stranger. Where's the best hotel here? No opinion on that, sir. What's the matter with you, are you crazy? Never formed any opinion. Well say, tell me what you mean by such answers?

Stranger, don't tell any of the fellows around here, but I'm in trainin' for jury duty at the next session of the court. HAD ONE ACCOMPLISHMENT. Your son, said the teacher, has misaid it on arithmetic. Yes. No good at spelling. Yes. A dunce in history. Yes. And there's no good in him. Professor, said the farmer, have you ever heard that boy cousin of a George's mule under a hill in a ten-acre field—Atlanta Constitution.

SUMMER visitors are arriving. Look out for the shirt waist men. Said the grizzly old physician: "There's no hand so dear to me as the hand of trials and troubles. I've found that holds the key."
