...HAD NO EQUAL WIFE'S KINGDOM.

...Dependent Upon ...For the Peace and Comfort of Household—Wisdom of Forethought a Word for Wives Also.

It was years ago that I came across a word of advice to husbands regarding the respect due to wives, part of which I will copy: "Never jest with your wife on any subject that may wound her feelings. Never speak of some prominent virtue in another man's wife with the desire to remind yours of some ... Do not be inattentive to ... company. It may be the ... that she, at first, overlooks this ...demeanment; but is it not the man's ...an he try to govern that unruly ... and not tax her forgiveness too

LESSONS FOR WIVES.

...Are you never silent or irritable in your ...own home with no one but your husband ...to entertain, but full of life, wit and amia- ...bility in company ? ...Will it quite right that husbands should re- ...ceive counsel thus given, and, taught by ...the lesson it is designed to teach, endeavor ...to augment the joys of home. But should ...wives also be equally ready to take the ...advice into their own hearts ? Are we not ...apt to trespass in the same way ? ...Are we may reign supreme, if we are ...sure of it, she acquire with a gentle ...praying for that guidance which will ...enable us to control our acts so that ...the law of love and kindness shall ever ...govern our speech. ...Who feels a thrill of pleasure in ...the words of praise given to her hus- ...band ? the respect she sees accorded to ...him increases her happiness. ...Then may we pretend to be indifferent ...to what others think of him he should so ...live as to disengage, word, and deed, ...every occasion for his lack of prin- ...ciple to her. ...Reflections on a New Year.

Yes, yes, 'tis very true and clear,
By way of compliment and common chat—
It's very well to wish me a New Year,
But wish me a new hat!

Although not spent in luxury and ease,
In course a long career I won't refuse;
But while you're wishing, wish me, if you please,
A newer pair of shoes!

Oh, yes, 'tis very pleasant, though I'm poor,
To hear the people make that merry din;
Except I wish one ball was at the door,
To ring new trousers in!

To be alive is very nice indeed,
Although another year at last departs;
Only with twelve new months, I rather need
A dozen of new shirts!

Yes, yes, 'tis very true and clear,
By way of compliment and common chat—
It's very well to wish me a New Year,
But wish me a new hat!

...Stub Ends of Thought.

Fear never carried a soul to heaven.

A little baby babyeth the whole lump.

Sunshine is sugar on the bread of nature.

Sensitiveness is emotional inflammation.

That labor is sweet is no sign that rest is bitter.

Every man's cash is a hostage to his credit.

Men may acquire reputation, but character is inherited.

To marry for love and miss it hurts more than to marry for money and miss it.

People have been known to die for those they love, but not for those who love them.

Little Josephine Libby.

HOW PLEASANT

It is to see an aged person with an elastic step, a bright smile and a kind word, and hear the child with its merry laughter ringing in our ears : these denote good health, which can be found in Skoda's Discovery.

Mr. Chas. Libby, of Auburn, Me., says : "My little girl Josephine, had congestion of the lungs, which left her very nervous and weak. She also had a humor break over her body ; after giving her a bottle of Skoda's Discovery and using a tube of Skoda's Ointment, the humor entirely left her. She is now well and strong."
