An unknown man, twenty-five years of age, thought to be a tramp, as the policeman's report states, was killed last ngiht by the 6.10 G. T. R. express from. Toronto, a few miles this side of Mimico and east of Port Credit. The story Powers told of the mis hap was that he was walking from To ronto to Hamilton last night and was just passing Mimico when he met a man walking the same way whom he picked up with and started to talk to. When they were nearing Port Credit they saw a freight coming towards them and they stepped out of the way of it to the other track immediately in the track of No. 9, the Toronto Express. Powers no ticed their danger and shouted to his companion at the same time jumping clear of the track himself. The stranger was not so lucky and just as he er was not so fucky and just as he jumped was hit by the train and knocked into the ditch. He was picked up unconscious, and almost dead and was bundled into the express car. His companion was also taken on board and the Hamilton police were notified to have the ambulance at the station on the arrival of the train but when it the arrival of the train, but when it came in Conductor Connors reported that the man had died a few seconds after being put on the train. Dear Sirs.—Our player-piano arrived safely, and we have now had a good opportunity to make a personal test of it. ### THE GLOBE EDITOR.

Toronto, Jan. 17.—The action of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, against Mr. J. A. Mac-Donald, Managing Editor of the Globe, for criminal libel, came up in the Sessions this morning. Hon. A. B. Morine, for Dr. Nesbitt, asked for an adjournment, because he said the defence had intimated that it was not quite ready to go on. The case was therefore adjourned till Tuesday next.

Now for Saturday

To-morrow will be the record day of this sale. Yes it will-everybody won't wait until next week and risk losing the chance of getting an $18, $20, $22 and $25 Coat or Suit at $10.

Nearly 400 Suits and Overcoats to select from yet, and about 100 of them were never sold for less than $16 until this sale started.

Of course, if you have not $10 to spend just now wait until later, as the price will continue to drop one dollar each day until the 28th; but don't forget that in the meantime other men are getting the best garments-they are getting first choice of the best overcoats and suits for $10 that we ever sold at $18, $20 and $25.

Why do we do it?

This question has been asked so often, let us explain for the hundredth time: 'Simply because we are bound to do the largest clothing business in Hamilton always."

During the past years tons of cheap clothing from Montreal has been brought to Hamilton for "special sale" purposes, and we don't propose to lose a single dollar's worth of our business to less worthy concerns. We figur ed on dropping some money on this sale, and we are do ing it, and if you don't believe we are, then deal at some store you have more confidence in. We mean what we say, right up to the hilt.
