Kaiser Intervenes.

NEW YORK, Noun.

A message to a New York Journal says the Kaiser has intervened at the last moment to make a last effort to prevent the resumption of hostilities in the East. He has communicated the German Ambassador his wishes and is backed by the Ambassador of the Triple Alliance. The Triple Entente is sympathetic and France is using her good offices with the Allies to urge upon them a consideration of the Kaiser's efforts. The Kaiser urges that the Allies shall accept Turkey's latest answer to the Notes of the Powers. In diplomatic circles scant hope is felt for the success of the intervention.

Found Drunk k.

At 3.30 this morning Constables Bennett and Harvey found a young woman, in an advanced state of intoxication on George Street, and having in her possession a part bottle of whiskey. The officers had a hard time getting her to the police station as she put up a stubborn resistance and attempted to use a hat pin on them. It would be interesting to know how or where she obtained the liquor seeing that the previous day was Sunday and that the saloons had been closed for nearly 48 hours.

Westwood Does Damage.

The s.s. Westwood was towed by the John Green and Ingham Saturday from Morey's to Tessier's premises, and in the storm fell over on Tessier's wharf, hitting it twice and doing much damage. The ship also collided with W. Reid's schr. Agnes Downs, took the bowsprit out of her and smashed in her bulkheads, doing at least $500 worth of damage to the schooner. The Westwood will take the biggest cargo of fish which ever left port—32,000 qts.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Standard Mfg. Co. will take place to-morrow afternoon.

AN URGENT CASE.—Mr. Eli White-way had word from Dr. Tait, of Brigus, that he was sending by to-day's train for Hospital a woman named Parsons, who was an urgent case.

Body Not Yet Recovered.

The body of the young man James, who met his fate by drowning in the harbor Saturday evening, was not recovered up to one o'clock to-day, despite the efforts of a number of men, who were scouring the bottom with jiggers. A diver went down this forenoon searching for the body, but without success.

These new perfumes, Blindean's Floral Extracts, are something really choice, and are excellent value at the money. The odors are remarkably true to name and are sweet, strong and lasting. Put up in neat, though not elaborate bottles and in a nice little box they make a handsome little package. Among the odors shown we notice Carnation, Sweet Pea, Lily of the Valley, White Rose, etc. We commend them for general use. Price 50 and 65c. a bottle.

Harsh winds cause skin discomfort. To obviate or cure their defects, Cream of Lilies answers perfectly. It soothes, heals and softens the skin. One single application will have surprising results. If your face and hands chap easily, try Cream of Lilies. Price 25c. a pot.

Steamer Sinks Schooner.

Special to The Evening Telegram.

PHILADELPHIA, To-Day.

The Hamburg-American liner Prinz Oskar, which sailed from here for Hamburg, has a large hole stove in her port bow, and a four-masted schooner, the City of Georgetown, is at the bottom of the sea as a result of a collision near Five Fathom Bank light, beyond Delaware breakwater. The schooner laden with a cargo of salt from New York for Savannah, sank in eight minutes. Capt. Slocum and the crew of seven men succeeded in lowering a boat and left the schooner just before she sank. They were taken aboard the Prinz Oskar, which returned to this city.

SAILED TODAY.—The Castor, which had been delayed since Wednesday last by the desertion of one of her crew, sailed for Europe to-day. A seaman to fill his place could not be secured here and the vessel had to sail with one hand short of her usual complement.

Express Has a Rough Run

The Bruce express which left Port aux Basques at 11 a.m. on Wednesday arrived here at 11.30 a.m. to-day with 18 first class passengers and several second class passengers. The train was held up at Kitty's Brook from 3 a.m. Thursday to 10.30 Saturday night owing to the rotary clearing the Topsails having its axle broken. A terrific blizzard—the like of which has not raged in that section for years—prevailed and the engine coming up to the relief of the rotary became stuck 60 yards from the water tank, and the men, who suffered severely, had to convey water to her in pails. The rotary is on the Y at Kitty's Brook. Near Norris Arm the water has overflowed the tracks for a long distance and covers them to the depth of over 3 feet. The train had to travel very slowly in this section where an engine is kept running to prevent the flood on the tracks freezing. The weather is the worst in that section for a number of years.

The Contrast.

Old Sam Swat was sawing wood, earning 17 even bits a day, and he filled the neighbourhood with his cheerful, hopeful lay. Twenty-seven hungry kids looked to him for things to eat, for their clothing and their lids, and the cases for their feet. And his work was mighty hard, but he didn't care a darn, saving in the rich man's yard, just forinst the red brick barn. "I have health and strength," he said, "and I'll make the bucksaw hum; there's Providence o'erhead—better things will surely come. For their homes and for their kids, men may always do their best, chirping like the katyids, till the hour has come for rest." In the rich man's house there sat, while his teags dripped to the floor, a poor jaded plutocrat who had found this life a bore. Long it was since he had sung, long since he had sprung a smile; and he said, with languid tongue: "nothing really worth the while! I would give a million bones if I knew how to sing in that fellow's joyous tones, as he saws the wood, by jing!" And if you have strength and health, do not for vast riches sigh; there are things that Croesus' wealth cannot for a moment buy.

The Mother of Lincoln.

In my study of Lincoln, the phenomena of whose existence and the wonder of whose being these few lines try to draw, I have not been able to free him from his mother, Nancy Hanks. Someone gave him his great sense of principle, made falsehood and the other small change of crime stupid, made him create within him a self that he could be at peace with, that he could face his neighbors with, his town, his state, his country with. Someone passed to this lone child of our harsh, lonely frontier, Luther's mother gave to young Martin. That same something Carlyle's mother gave him and Cornelia the Graechi. In those almost first hours, day, years, Abe got it; the remaining forty-five were simply for growing, developing, maturing. Perhaps her death burned all into his tender, trembling nature. This boy of nine, who fifteen years later spread his coat over the mound that covered one he had dreamed would be his life companion to keep the rain from reaching her, must have had the films of his character all filled and set for life by that mother, that one to whom "he owed all he ever was," as he later said.—Gutzon Borglum in Woman's World for February.

Stop Coughing

It's quite as foolish as it is annoying to keep on coughing since Phoradone Cough Mixture is guaranteed to soothe and heal the irritated parts at once, and to rapidly destroy the very cause of this aggravating nuisance. Hundreds of persons are complaining every day about the cough or cold they have had for a long time and are not able to get rid of it. Don't let a Cough or Cold hang on to you day after day and run the chance of catching and developing the Cough that is not easy to get rid of. You will avoid all this unnecessary worry (about the cough or cold you have) by obtaining "Phoradone Cough Mixture" at once.

He Deserved It.

One morning Bill the Poacher was engaged in his early morning labours, when suddenly he came face to face with the owner of the manor, whom naturally he thought still lay abed.

Gone was the brightness of the morning as the redoubtable squire eyed the uninvited guest, who stammered out a nervous greeting.

"G-good morning, sir! Wha-what brings you out so early?"

"Oh," replied the lord of the land, with a haughty stare and an unconscious testing of the light switch he carried in his hand, "I came out to gain an appetite for breakfast. But why, may I ask, are you out so early?"

Living close to nature makes for quickness, and there was scarcely a pause of half a second before Bill replied:

"Well, now, Squire, that's curious. Here you come out early to get an appetite for breakfast, and I come out to get a breakfast for my appetite!"
