Insure with the QUEEN, VICTORY War Bread Show

(Under the auspices of His Excellency the Governor) WILL BE HELD IN THE British Hall, Wednesday, March 13th, AT THREE O'CLOCK.

Object: To encourage the baking by the housewives of St. John's, of bread, cake, buns, etc. containing substitutes for wheat flour, so as to lessen the consumption of the latter and thereby release more for the use of the Allies.

Exhibits will be in five classes: Class 1: Breads composed of wheat flour and not less than 20 per cent. of potatoes. First prize, a barrel of flour; second prize, a half barrel of flour.

Class 2: Bread composed of wheat flour and not less than 20 per cent. of oatmeal or rolled oats. First prize, a barrel of flour; second prize, a half barrel of flour.

Class 3: Bread composed of wheat flour and not less than 20 per cent. of any other substitute. First prize, a barrel of flour; second prize, a half barrel of flour.

Class 4: War cake, to contain not less than 20 per cent. of substitutes mixed with wheat flour. First prize, a barrel of flour; second prize, a half barrel of flour.

Class 5: Biscuits, tea buns, scones, etc., to contain not less than 20 per cent. of substitutes mixed with wheat flour. First prize, a barrel of flour; second prize, a half barrel of flour.

The factors which will influence the judges in their findings are palatability, appearance and cheapness.

The decision of the judges will in all cases be final.

Competitors can send loaves of bread of any size or shape, using their own baking equipment. Each exhibit should have attached to it a paper showing the recipe from which it is made, with the ingredients stated in pounds and ounces.

Exhibits will be received at the British Hall between the hours of 2 and 6 p.m. on Tuesday, March 12.

Each exhibit on presentation at the Hall will have affixed to it a number and the exhibitor will be given a similar number, and her name will be entered in a register kept for the purpose.

The judging will take place on Wednesday morning, and the names of the prize winners will be announced at the opening, when the prizes will be presented.

All exhibits will be turned over to charitable organizations for the benefit of the poor.
