

his fellow-citizens by Father in Logan cannot well be imagined. At his death his body was found stretched on a miserable bed in an attic of the Quartier de Grenelle, which is anything but a fashionable district in Paris. He was an old man, had lived in the simplest way, sustaining himself almost entirely on bread. His room contained hardly any furniture; yet, hid in a corner, was found a little cupboard with numerous shelves, and on these were sorted with the greatest order regiments of corks. In the centre was a manuscript, written by the Pere la Loque, on which he stated that he had formerly been in possession of considerable wealth, now squandered; that of all his greatness there remained but these corks, drawn in better times to welcome many a friend who had now forgotten him; that age and ruin had taught their moral, and that on each cork would be found written its history. This the old man did, hoping that it would serve as a timely warning, and that, placed on the shelves of some museum or a philosopher's study, they might be found to illustrate human nature. On one of the corks was an inscription to this effect: 'Champagne cork; bottle emptied 12th of May, 1845, with M. B., who wished to interest me in a business by which I was to make ten millions. This affair cost me 50,000f. M. B.—escaped to Belgium. A caution to amateurs.' On another appears the following: 'Cork of Cyprus wine, of a bottle emptied on the 4th of December, 1850, with a dozen fast friends. Of these I have not found a single one to help me on the day of my ruin. The names of the twelve are annexed below.'

NOT PERTINENT.—A late number of the Halifax Citizen announces, that the new Militia Bill exacts an oath of allegiance to the Dominion of Canada, and the editor desires to know how good accommodation can be provided for the one hundred and fifty thousand recusants who will be found in Nova Scotia. There are two reasons why the "Antis" may make themselves easy. First, the Militia Bill is not very likely to pass; and secondly, even if it do the obligation is not to bear true allegiance to the Dominion, but to Her Majesty for the defence of it against all her enemies; and they might do duty in the militia, and talk about repeal without inconsistency, or without any violation of their oath.

Hon. John Magee, who died a few days since at his home in Schuyler County, N. Y., was one of the wealthiest men of the time, estimated at $40,000,000. He was one of the original projectors of the Erie Railway, and for many years a leading director. He was also the originator and, up to his demise, president of the Steuben County Bank. The bulk of his fortune has been made within the last ten or fifteen years by dealing in coal lands in Pennsylvania, which he bought and sold on a gigantic scale. Among other bequests he left $30,000 to the American Bible Society, and $50,000 to the American Tract Society. A young man murdered in a haunt of the social evil in New York, the other day, was a son of ex-Mayor Wescott, of Jersey City, and inherited a fortune of $250,000.

whose internal organs enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite with from one to two of his original Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggell's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggell's Pills are not of the class that are followed by the dose, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggell's Pills suffices to keep the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirit light and buoyant. There is no griping and no reaction in the form of constipation if the liver is affected, its functions are restored, and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcers and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant use of Maggell's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggell's Billous, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoeal Pills cure where all other fail—Pain for Burns, Sores, Chilblains, Cuts, and all Abrasions of the Skin. Maggell's Salve is invaluable. Sold by J. HAYDOCK, 11 Pine Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cents per box.
Counterfeit!—Buy no Maggell Pills or Salve, with a little pamphlet inside the box. They are bogus. The genuine have the name of J. Haydock on box with name of J. Maggell, M. D. The genuine have the Pills surrounded with white powder.
Frightful Burns!—Frightful Sores!—Dr. Maggell's Salve stops the most violent pain of burns, sores, etc. It is invaluable. Sold in Guelph by A. B. PETRIE, Druggist, Market Square.

INDIA & CHINA TEA CO'Y.
Home Depot at London and Liverpool, Canada Depot, 23 Hospital Street, Montreal.

THE India and China Tea Company beg to call the attention of the Canadian community to their directly imported Teas, which for purity and EXCELLENCE will be found unequalled.
The Company have made arrangements whereby they have secured the entire produce of some of the best plantations in Assam and on the slopes of the Himalayas, and, by a judicious blending of these magnificent Teas with the best varieties of China produce, they are enabled to offer to the public Teas of quality and flavour hitherto unknown to the general consumer. These Teas are in high favour in England and France, and a single trial will prove their superiority.
The Company supply two qualities only, either Black, Green or Mixed. Their Black Teas will be found to possess great briskness and flavour, combined with colour and strength, and to be entirely different to the flat and watery article usually sold as Black Tea; while their Green Teas are altogether of a superior quality, and are of a delicate and delicious flavour, and are of a superior quality to any other Green Teas.

AT IT AGAIN.

From unforeseen circumstances, I am obliged to once more plunge into the torrents of active business life. It affords me no small degree of pleasure and satisfaction to know that I am still to continue to serve and be a means of profit to the great mass of the inhabitants of the County of Wellington and its vicinity. I shall in the time to come, as in the past, make it a study and one of the leading features in my business affairs at all times to be in a position to secure Goods in the very best markets, and to the best possible advantage. My purchases will all be made for Ready Money—and money will command Bargains such as credit cannot. This advantage will be given to my customers. It is needless to remind my numerous friends and supporters that the immense variety of every description of Goods presented to select from is a very great advantage, together with the undeniable fact that my Goods are all imported from the manufacturers direct, ensures to my patrons a saving of a fair profit over that of any other establishment in the trade. I possess great advantages this season for offering extra inducements to my customers.
COTTON GOODS have all advanced very rapidly within the last month. During the period of panic prices I bought heavily, indeed sufficient to do my business requirements during the summer. Since an advance of fully forty per cent. has taken place.
My stock now in every branch is full, and an early call from my old friends will be well repaid both as regards variety to select from and the great saving to be effected in price.
Thanking you for past favors,
I remain yours,
JOHN HOGG.
