Land Valuation

The people who won't tell what, d with the secret service money, sort to brutal insult, false charges tituffs in the elections, are makinet and because the Commissions own Lands, the Hon. R. W. Scott, at out valuators to inspect school it is system of valuing lands was in each by Sandfield's government, to ordance with his usual cranky systemed to include school lands, ple who were left out by his nesting the contract of the c accordance with his usual cranky system, he refused to include school lands. The people who were left out by his partiality are now being put on an equality with those who settled oh clergy reserve lands, Crown lands and Grammar School lands. Those who have paid up for their lands are told that they have a right to complain of Sandfield's law. There never was a law that suited everybody. Those who are on good lands will likely not get much reduction; even if they did, it would not injure those who have paid; it takes nothing from them, that the deby owed by their neighbor will be reduced a little. There are many lots so poor that nothing should eyer have been charged to the actual settler for them. It is surely better to give some relief than to give none at all.—Walkerton Telescope.

The people of the village turned out to look for the body, but as yet it has not been found. It is supposed it has gone over the Falls.
