EDMONTON FOOTBALL REPRESENTATIVES SPRING SURPRISE ON LOCAL BOYS

Calgary for years has been looked upon as the foremost city in Calgary for years has been looked upon as the foremost city in the West and of the whole of the Dominion in soccer football. Teams from this city have travelled from east to west and met the best clausers that could be placed against them and have never been beat.

They have been invincible, both on thir own ground and away, and the consequence was that when Calgary went up to Edmonton to take part in the first inter-city league game ever played in Alberta they were looked upon as certain winners. The followers of Edmonton were so pessimistic as to their team's chances that just a friendly bet they were asking for three to one, with a goal one of the control of the Perfect Football Weather.

The evening was a perfect one for the game, but the hour fixed, 6 p.m., was not a good one. The Calgary team were not quite so fresh as they might have been. A sleepless night on the train and then knecking around Edmonton all day was not calculated to put them in the best of shape to play a hard game.

Dismond Park is a fine enclosure, and a better football-pitch could not be desired. There was a perfect green turf covering the greater part of the field, except where the baseball dismond was encroached upon, and it looked fine. But Calgary had been accustomed to playing on grounds on which there was scarcely a bit of green to be seen, and they slipped about on the grass is helpless fashion. Then, to finish everything, they had to face the sun in fac first half, and that bettered them not a little, and when Edmonton came to defend the east end great the sun had almost gone down.

H. Chandler, the owner of the Red Deer franchise, has lost all Rochet Schneider, set a new world's the money that he can afford on the enterprise, and unless means are mark for five miles, amateur driver, on three provided to carry him over the present difficulties he will give up a half-mile unbanked track. This was Although badly shaken the team. In that event the team will be dropped from the league in a special five mile challenge for and and wit it will go the Bassano team, while Calgary and Edmonton will play home and home games for the remainder of the season.

The affair from start to finish is a very complicated one. In the first place, the citizens of Red Deer were promised by the executive of the Western Canada league, that if they would contribute $2,500 to the league, that a professional baseball team would be placed in Red Deer and that they would not again be called upon during the season for support. All but $500 of this sum has been paid and this amount is due upon September first. Mr. Chandler has, requested the Red Deer club to turn over this amount to him now and of the first mile the Benz had a and thinks that with this assistance he will be able to complete the slight lead, but Oldfield handled the season. The Red Deer citizens, however, do not wish to give up this final payment until it is due.

The Red Deer team won the championship of the first series and, under Bill Hurley's management, were dangerous contenders miles against Heinnemann in the Benz for the second series. But in spite of the fact that they were champions the club lost money as did every other club in the league and Mr. Chandler has been forced to dig down into his pockets for several thousand dollars. As he is not an independently rich man, he cannot afford to carry the burden any longer. When the second series started Chandler felt that he would be Schneider, Damury a, Stearnes,

The result of two goals to one in Edmonton's favor was a great surprise; a surprise even to the most optimistic Edmonton follower. At half time, when the score board was unmarked, four scribes in scribblers asked, in despair almost, if there was not one sports aggregation in Edmonton which could win and thus give them some of the tring to write about.
