Barkwell's Sure Corn Cure AS A GOLDEN OFFERING

And which he declares, after experience, Worth More than its Weight in Gold.

This fluid is good, and I told you it would Cure corns and bunions as we'll: So now, Uncle John, just put it right on And you will have wonders to tell.

I tell you again, 'twill cure without pain, Though you may be loath to believe is. But after my trial there can be no denial, And as a boon I hope you'll receive it.

I have often been told 'tis more precious than gold. And as such I submit it to you. For asgold was the thing I'm expected to bring, I think this present will do.

N.B.—This is the way the public show their appreciation of a genuine article, and we must commend it, and congratulate the proprietor, W. S. Bryers Barkwell, in being the possessor of an article that gladdens so many hearts, and upon which the public place so high a premium.

At the last meeting of the Dundas Street Center Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle as the president, Rev. A. C. Courtice, was absent, the vice-president, Dr. Susanna Carson, occupied the chair in good style. The following members took part in the evening's programme: Misses Styles and Dempsey, Dr. Jennie Carson, Messrs. W. L. Judson and T. W. Birks. After having spent two hours very pleasantly together the circle was dismissed by Mr. W. L. Judson.

The Hospital Trust met vesterday afterdemand and short crop, and low stock reports. Levis, Complin, Purdom, Gilmour, City Engineer Tracy and Secretary Graydon. The usual semi-monthly reports of the Medical Superintendent were received, showing that there were 53 patients in the hospital at present, and that 15 had been admitted and 9 discharged. A communication was read from Division Court Clerk McIntosh, stating that Mrs. E. Adams disputed the claim of the Board and that it would be heard at the next sitting of the court. Messrs. Complin and the Mayor were appointed a committee to visit the hospital and see what repairs, etc., were needed, and to examine the grounds with a view to seeing what steps should be taken to beautify them.

General Renwick's Will.

Probate has been granted for the will of the late General Renwick. The will is very brief, all his real and personal property being left to his two daughters, Mrs.

"Three of a Kind."

At the Grand Opera House last night "Three of a Kind." opened to an audience which showed its appreciation from the start, and induged in intermingled laughter and applause. The names of such favorities as Hattie Anderson, Frank Doane, Henry Clark and R. C. Gardner were on the bills opposite the leading characters, and they all did well. The company is a musical one of a first-class order, and a more enjoyable musical comedy has seldom been put on here. This afternoon they give a matinee at special reduced rates—25 and 35 cents. To-night will be the last opportunity of attending.

The Coming Attraction.

We have received a very interesting circular in reference to the appearance here at the Grand Opera House, Friday, May 9, of the celebrated "Schubert Quartet," of Chicago, who have earned the reputation of being the finest male quartet on the American continent. They are evidently a particularly strong attraction this season, as in addition to Miss Georgiella, the pianist, they are assisted by Miss Inez Mecusker, a soprano of great merit, upon whom the American press lavish the fullest praise. Mr. Iott, the famous basso, has been requested to sing "The Wolf," a selection which, rendered by his superb voice, will be well worth the price of admission alone. The Atlanta American, in speaking of Mr. Iott, says: "It would be impossible to be guilty of creative and the confidently lock forward to a crowded house; indeed, it would be an insult to think of creative the "Schubart Operate" in the contents of the property of the standard of the contents and the confidently lock forward to a crowded house; indeed, it would be an insult to think of creative in the schubart Operate with the contents of the cont idently lock forward to a crowded house; ndeed, it would be an insult to think of

THE "NORMA" CIGAR.
All competent judges of a good cigar are unanirrous in pronouncing the "Norma" one of the finest 10-cent cigars made in Canada. This cigar has all the delicate flavor of an imported cigar, without any of its attendant 'faults. The cigar is the product of H. hk-Kay & Co., of this city, who invariably use the best tobacco leaf, most carefully prepaded. The result of this strict attention to quality of raw material is that the "Norma," stands to the front of all 10-cent cigars, and although there is a prevailing idea that a cigar manufactured at home cannot be equal to an imported article, this prejudice is being an imported article, this prejudice is being rapidly overcome by the growing popu-larity of the "Norma."
