Death of Mr. Wm. McKerlie, a Pioneer of the West.

HAD NEARED THE CENTURY MARK

Was Captain in Regiment in '37 and '38 and Carried Dispatches-An Active Life.

Mr. William McKerlie, whose death occurred on Wednesday at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. T. Bland, of Kincardine, was one of the pioneers of Western Ontario. Mr. McKerlie was 96 years of age and with the exception of a half-dozen years spent in California, he had lived his entire life in the section of Ontario lying west of Toronto-the greater portion of it in the immediate vicinity of London. He was born on the Governor's road, in the township of Nelson, Halton County, on Nov. 22, 1807, and consequently at the time of his death had just passed his 96th birthday. He remained in Halton County until he was 32 years of age—and some of those years were full of excite-ment. Besides experiencing all the hardships and privations so common to the pioneers of those days, Mr. Mc-Kerlie took a hand in suppressing the rebellion of 1837 and 1868, holding a

The gold fields of California gave promise of unusual wealth in 1849, and Mr. Mckerlie, who was always so fond of adventure, went to that country, going by way of the Isthmus of Panama. He engaged in gold digging for six years, returning in 1855 to Westminster, and again engaging in farming. He remained there until ten years ago, since which time

Mr. McKerlie was interested in munister Township Council. He was possessed of a remarkable constitution and never experienced a day's illness until within two weeks of his death. His fatal illness, however, lasted only Dowager Empress of China Worried About Marchuria.

Tokio, Nov. 27. - It is stated in mandarin circles that the Empress Dowager is finding her days and nights harassed by the Manchurian question and the Kuargsi crisis. Woman-like, she has resorted to the gods for heip. In fact, she has lately made a vow before the Budda of Tanshoushan temple that if the affairs of the above named provinces be satisfactorily settled by next November she would expend the entire money contributions promised by the high officers of the crown of Pekin and the provinces, estimated at $8,000,069 in all, for the celebration of her 70th birthday aniversary next year upon building extra temples, beautifying the present ones and in doing other good work that may be pleasing to the
