BROWN'S DOWNFALL WAS BIG SURPRISE

Defaulting Hamilton Banker Was Very Popular.

GENEROUS AND KINDHEARTED

Stock Speculation Given as the Cause of His Ruin-Did Not Live Luxurious Life.

Nov. 4. - Hillhouse Hamilton. Brown, bank manager, spent last night in the city jail. While his friends throughout the city, and they could be counted by hundreds, were discussing his case in sorrow, he was alone in his dreary cell something of a wreck. He was at No. 3 police station yesterday afternoon from 1:30 till 5 o'clock, and then he was taken in a hack to the The arrest had been made very quietly by Detective Inspector Mc-Mahon, and together the two had walked to the police station. The trip from the station to the Barton street bastile was made by Mr. Brown in company wih Detective Campbell. The handsome prisoner, who had been so tall and erect and had walked among his fellow men but a few hours previously with the air of a man at peace with all the world, had little to say in his deep humiliation. used up and tired out.

The strain of business, the cares of home and social life and the task of study cause terrible suffering from heart and nerve troubles. The efforts put forth to keep up to the modern "high pressure" mode of life in this age soon wears out the strongest system, shatters the nerves and weakens the heart. Thousands find life a burden and others an early grave. The strain on the system causes nervousness, palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, faint and dizzy spells, skip beats, weak and irregular pulse, smothering and sinking spells, etc. The blood becomes weak and watery and eventually causes decline. Wilburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are indicated for all diseases arising from a weak and debilitated condition of the heart or of the nerve centres. Mrs. Thos.
