CHRISTMAS DAY IN LOCAL CHURCHES

A Special Union Service Held in Colborne Street Methodist Church.

TWO BISHOPS PREACHED

His Lordship of Huron in St. Paul's and His Lordship of London in St. Peter's.

Special Christmas services were held in all the Anglican Churches yesterday morning, and a union service of the borne Street Church at 11 o'clock. In the Anglican churches the rectors preached, with one exception, when Rev. S. R. Heakes spoke at Memorial Church. The subjects of the sermons were all closely connected with the life of Christ. Rev. S. R. Heakes chose as his text,

John, iii., 16: "For God so loved the world that he gave His only begotten Son." The speaker stated that the conditions of life are infinitely better than they were before the beginning of Christian era. He referred to the Jews and the advancement they had largely attended. At 11 o'clock, Rev. Canon Craig preached the usual Christmas sermon from Luke, ii., 24: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men." The choir rendered special Christmas music, including the anthem, "The Lord Is Thy Light," and the church was decorated for the services by a committee of ladies.

St. George's Church.

Rev. Canon Sage preached at the second service in St. George's Church, West London, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, at which there was a very large attendance. Canon Sage chose as his subject, Mathew, ii., 1. The choir under the leadership of Miss Minnie Raymond rendered special music. Holy communion was held at 8:30 in the morning.

A Union Service.

Rev. A. McKibbin, B.A., the evengelist of the London Conference, occupied the pulpit in Colborne Street Church at the union service on account of the absence of Rev. S. A. Anderson There was a large congregation present and special music was furnished by number of the soloists of the various lethodist churches. The sermon was based on the quotations: "For we have seen His star in the east," and "I am the bright and morning star." The speaker stated that as the first seekers after Christ were heathen, it should be easily believed that the heathen of today are just as anxious to receive him now as then. In connection with the second passage, he said there were four lessons to be taken from it that would be of great encouragement to church workers. Christ by comparing Himself to a star, made Himself one of us; as a morning star He ushered in the be ginning of a new day in Christian life. He is a guide the same as the star guided the wise men to His birthplace, and it also signified that the church of God is making steady progress all

St. Paul's Cathedral. Bishop Williams preached the sermon at the service in St. Paul's Cathedral at 11 o'clock, and chose for his subject, "The Desire of the Nations."
"As Christ fulfilled all the desires of should lead a better life after naving the sacrifice and work of Christ again impressed upon them," was the continuous the bishop's sermon. There was a large congregation present, and the choir, led by Mr. G. B. Sippi, rendered a number of anthems. Rev. Canon Tucker, the rector, Rev. G. F.

St. Andrew's Church. Rev. Dr. Ross, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, addressed a meeting in Wesley Hall, First Methodist in Wesley Hall, First Methodist Church, last evening on the subject, "The Word Was Made Flesh," choosing as his text, John, I., 14. Dr. Ross gave a sympathetic and practical talk of a Christmas nature, and stated that God by sending His Son to the world to save men should give all a true conception of the value of a true conception of the value of In Catholic Churches.

Masses were commenced at day-preak in the different Roman Catholic churches of the city, and were terminated by high mass at 10:30. In St. Peter's Cathedral, Bishop Fallon cele- mas Pudding." Members of the choir brated high mass at 10:30, and was assisted by Rev. Fathers Tobin, Corcoran, Tierney and Harding. His lordship said that while all, no doubt, appreciated the gladness and joy connected with the birth of Christ, the sorrowful side should not be forgotten. The child was born amidst circumstances of the most lowly nature, and

CHRISTMAS AT RIDEAU HALL

Ottawa, Dec. 25.—Christmas Day was spent quietly in the capital. At Government House none of the time-honored customs associated with the day were neglected. Christmas Eve was marked by the distribution of gifts by the Duke of Connaught to the public works employees, 40 in number, engaged about the grounds of the vice-regal residence. The members of the personal staff, servants and others were not forgotten, the duke personally wishing every member of the staff a merry Christmas, while they were also presented with gifts.

Their royal highinesses attended divine service in St.

Bartholomew's Anglican Church today, and in the evening with their staff partook of Christmas dinner. Throughout the city the various charitable institutions distributed Christmas cheer, many thousands attending the Salvation Army and missionary homes dinners. The weather was

morning, and a union service of the Methodist churches took place in Colborne Street Church at 11 o'clock. In THE NEW DANGER POINTS

Rev. C. R. Gunne, of Christ Church, preached to a large congregation at the service commencing at 10:30 from the text, Nehemiah, viii., 10. At 8:30 in the morning holy communion was partaken of by a very large number of communicants.

St. John's Church.

Holy communion was celebrated in the Church of St. John the Evangelist yesterday morning at 8:30 and was largely attended. At 11 o'clock, Rev. Canon Craig preached the usual class of the assumption that they will be equally wide from what are likely to be the eventual terms of the peace treaty, as to the assumption that they will be equally wide from what are likely to be the eventual terms of the peace treaty, as were the demands of the allies, and that they will be equally wide from what are likely to be the eventual terms of the peace treaty, as there shell by wide from what are likely to be the eventual terms of the peace treaty, as there should be there.
