Trio of Shaving Pleasures - Try Them

SHAVING STICK

In Royal Vinolia is summed up all that science and experience in the art of high-class soapmaking can effect, to produce an ideal Shaving Soap; yields a luxurious, creamy lather-refreshing, soothing, and wonderfully stimulating to the skin-and does not dry on the face.

A Shaving Soap so pure and perfect that it can be used with either hot or cold water, with equally satisfactory results.

Provides the smoothest, pleasantest shave on any beard. In handsome nickel box, fitting company for the finest pieces on your dressing table. Price, 25 cents.

has the same purity and quality as Royal Vinolia Shaving Stick, in Powder form. Many gentlemen prefer it to any other form of shaving soap because of the convenience and ease with which it is used. Wet the brush, sprinkle a little powder on it, then rub well into the beard, and a creamy, soft, luxurious lather quickly results.

Shortens the time spent in preparing for the shave, because while you work up the lather you, at the same time, perform the work of rubbing it into the beard. It begins to soften the beard the instant it is applied, and, in fact, affords a delightful revelation of new shaving comfort and convenience. Put up in elegant enamelled tin containers, with special form of

A very unique member of the Vinolia family. Aims to permit the user to dispense with both shaving brush and water during the shave.

And succeeds remarkably well, as everyone who has used this soothing, delightfully refreshing preparation will testify. All you need to do is rub the Cream with the finger tips well over the beard, no water or brush needed—and no matter how wiry the hair, your razor will do its work with even more than its usual effectiveness. And more—after the shave you'll find your face cool, refreshed, benefited and free from irritation. Comes in large, collapsible tubes. 25 cents.

CHAPTER XIII.

The Tables Are Turned.

As soon as the door was closed behind the messenger Thorne laid his cigar down on the table. Then he picked up the dispatch from the Secretary of War which the messenger had just brought in, and folded it very dexterously. Then with a pair of scissors which he found in a drawer he cut off the lower part of the Secretary's dispatch containing his signature. He put this between his teeth and tore the rest into pieces. He started to throw the pieces into the waste basket, but after a moment's reflection he stuffed them into his trouser pocket. Then he picked up his coat from the back of the chair and took from the inside breast pocket another document written on the same paper as that which had just come from the Secretary of War. Spreading this out on the table he cut off the signature and quickly pasted to it the piece of the real order bearing the real signature. He carefully wiped the pasted dispatch with his handkerchief, making an exceedingly heat job of it. CHAPTER XIII.

dispatch with his handkerchief, making an exceedingly neat job of it.

As he did so, he smiled slightly. Fortune, which had dealt him so many rebuffs had evened up matters a little by giving him this opportunity. He was now in possession of a dispatch bearing the genuine signature of the Secretary of War. Even if he were interrupted the chances were he would still be able to send it. As soon as he had doctored the dispatch, he sat down at the instrument and once more essayed to send the message.

To Discard Freckles, Tan, Pimples, Wrinkles

(From Feminine World.) The use of creams on the face some times causes hair to grow. You can avoid the risk of acquiring superfluous hair by avoiding cosmetics and using mercolized wax instead. There is nothing better for any condition of the skin, as the wax actually absorbs the offensive cuticle. The latter is naturally replaced by a clear, smooth, healthy complexion, full of life and expression. It's the sensible way to discard a freckled, tanned, over-red, blotchy or pimpled skin. "Drop that gun!" he shouted. "Drop it quick, or you are a dead man!"

There was no possibility of disobenience. Thorne straightened up and laid his revolver on the table. The two conformed each other, and if looks could have killed they had both been dead men. The soldier shrugged his shoulders at last, took his handkerchief out of his pocket, put one end between his teeth, and with the other hand wrapped it tightly around his wounded wrist.

The civilian meantime advanced toward him, keeping him covered all the time with his revolver.

"Do you know why I didn't kill you like the dog you are?" he asked truculently, as he drew nearer.

"Because you are such a bad shot, I suppose," coolly answered Thorne, between his teeth, still tying the bandage, after which he calmly picked up his cigar and began smoking again with the utmost indifference. transformation. The ideal wrinkle eradicator is made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half-pint witch hazel. Bathing the face in the solution brings simost instantaneous results.

Whatever fate had in store for him could better be met, he thought swiftly at this juncture, provided he kept his temper, and so he spoke as nonchalantly as before. Indeed, his manner had always been most irritating to Arrelsford. "Maybe you will change your mind about that later on," the latter rejoined. "Well, I hope so," said Thorne, completing his bandage and tying the knot so as to leave the fingers of his left hand free. "You see, it isn't pleasant to be riddled up this way." Whatever fate had in store for him

FIELD CROP WORK DISCUSSED AT O. A. C.

Big Convention of the Judges in the Government Competition.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Guelph, July 5. - A most successful convention of Ontario Government judges in the standing field crop competition terminated at the O. A. College today. Many matters pertaining to the welfare of agriculture in Ontario were discussed by representative farmers from all parts of the Province, nearly 100 being in attendance.

main object of the meeting The was for the purpose of arriving at a uniform system of marking the different score cards and a uniform system of judging. Two hundred agricultural societies have entered this standing field crop competition, and 5,000 individual farmers, members of these societies, are competing. This field crop work is considered the most important line yet taken up by the farmers of Ontario. It was inaugurated six years ago by Superintendent Wilson, and the grant for this year is $18,500. Among other important matters, a resolution passed that the Dominion Government be memorialized to amend the seed control act of 1911, so that it will be necessary to have all receptacles, packages, sacks or bags of alfalfa seed offered for sale in Canada marked in a plain and indelible manner, with the name of the province, state or country in which the seed was grown.

BAILEY --- BAILEY

A Very Pretty Wedding in South London.

On Wednesday, July 3, the residence of Mrs. Thomas Hill, 35 Tecumseh avenue, was the scene of a very quiet but pretty wedding, when Miss Florence Helena Bailey, of Dudbury, England, was united in marriage to Mr. Wm. G. Bailey, electrical engineer of the hydro pumping station. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. Davis. The bride, who was given away by Mr. T. H. Hill, looked charming in a gown of white voile and lace over white silk, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Miss Maud Hill, who acted as bridesmaid, were a becoming gown of silk, and carried pink carnations, while Mr. John Dawson sup-ported the groom. After the ceremony a very dainty wedding breakfast was served in a marquee on the lawn. Later in the evening the happy couple left to spend a week in Port Stanley, LINIMENT CURES after which they will take up their residence on Talbot street, this city.

ARE USUALLY THE VICTIMS OF PALE, WATERY BLOOD.

Anaemia is the medical term for coor or watery blood. It may arise from a variety of causes, such as ack of exercise, hard study, improperly ventilated rooms or work-shops, imperfect assimilation of food, perly etc. The chief symptoms are extreme pallor of the face, lips and gums; rapid breathing and palpitation of the heart after slight exertion; headaches, dizziness, sometimes fainting spells and a tendency to hysterics, swelling of the feet and limbs, a feeling of constant tiredness and a distaste for food. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a certain cure for anaemia, because they make new, rich blood, stimulates and strengthens every organ and every part of the body. The following is one among thousands of cases of this serious trouble cured by the use of Dr. Pink Pills. Miss Georgina liams' Raymond, St. Jerome, Que., says: "About a year ago my health began to give out. I suffered from headaches, heart palpitation, dizziness, and appeared to be threatened with a general breakdown. I was at this time employed in the family of a doctor, who, seeing my condition, fully for some time, but with no benefit, and I grew much discouraged.
