NO RUBBER STAMPS FOR EAST MIDDLESEX

Rev. Ben. Spence Tells Birr Electors of Government's Temperance Failure.

"Mr. McFarlan says that he is behind Mr. Whitney. Well, he is too far back for us. No man who is going to act as a rubber stamp for the Government is any good to us." So said Rev. Ben. Spence at a well-attended meeting in Birr on Wednesday afternoon, in the interests of the temperance candidate in East Middlesex, J. W. Laidlaw.

Mr. Spence reviewed the temperance situation in Ontario in a most sane and logical manner, his arguments being given added point by a number of splendid charts showing the progress that has been made and what remains to be done towards securing province-wide prohibition. Local opinion had about reached the end of its usefulness, he declared, especially under the three-fifths clause, which he characterized as "an iniquitous enactment of the Whitney Government."

The issue in the by-election, he said, was not between Mr. Laidlaw and Mr. McFarlan, but between Mr. Laidlaw and Conservative politics. "Never before has the eye of the province been so trained upon this constituency as it is today," he said. "The temperance movement in Ontario is at the mercy of the electors of East Middlesex."

Rev. John Coburn also delivered a stirring address along temperance lines.

Heart and Nerves Were Bad.

Could Not Sleep.

To the thousands of people who toss on a sleepless pillow night after night, or who pace the bedroom floor with nerves on the jump, the heart action all wrong, and to whose eyes sleep will not come, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills offer the blessing of sound refreshing slumber, as they restore the equilibrium of the deranged nerve centres and correct the wrong action of the heart.

Mrs. Charles Teel, Horncastle, Ont., writes: "Just a few lines to let you know what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. My heart and nerves were so bad I could not sleep, and the least noise or excitement would make me feel so that I used to think I was going to die, and I would tremble until I could hardly stand. I took doctor's medicine, but it did not do me much good. At last I tried Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and can certainly say they did me a great amount of good. I can recommend them to anyone who is suffering as I was."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been on the market for the past twenty years, and have done more to steady shaky nerves and strengthen weak hearts, than any other known preparation.

EMPEROR WILLIAM IS IN NEED OF FUNDS

Kaiser's Income of Four Millions Annually Is Not Large Enough.

[Canadian Press.] New York, N. Y., Nov. 27.—A cable to the Tribune from Berlin says:

Although he has a civil list income of nearly $4,000,000 a year, and although in addition he receives nearly as much again in revenue from his castles and estates, the Emperor William, according to himself, is having quite a bad time and can scarcely make both ends meet.

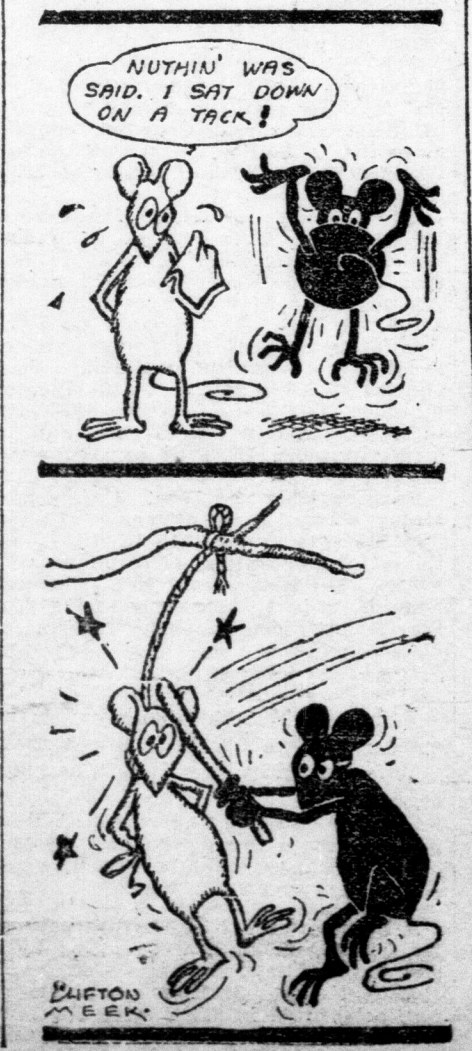

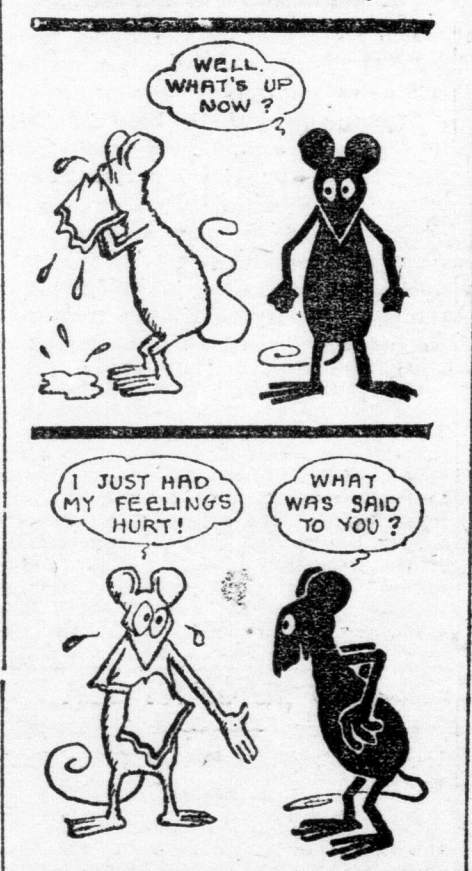

For this reason he has decided to part with one of his castles. It is expected that the one at Monbijou, which has great historical interest, and which is now used as a museum, will be chosen for the sacrifice.

The Emperor has so far recovered from his recent indisposition that he was able to depart yesterday on a visit to his brother-in-law, the Duke of Schleswig-Holstein, at his hunting lodge.

ELECTRIC IRON STARTED BLAZE IN APARTMENT

Was Left Standing With Switch Turned On While the Family Visited.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Nov. 27.—An electric iron left standing on a wooden table with the switch turned on started a fire last evening in the rooms of Henry Barber, Maitland apartments, that caused a loss of $8,000 and for a time threatened to destroy the whole building.

Members of the Barber family were away on a visit when the fire broke out, and for this reason the blaze had made good headway before it was noticed by occupants of adjoining apartments. The Barber apartments are on the third floor of the building, and when the firemen had reached the house great clouds of smoke were pouring from the windows, and there seemed a serious fire to fight. By good work, however, they confined the damage to the rooms in which it originated, although adjoining apartments will suffer slightly from smoke

ADMIRALTY LORDS RESIGNED IN A BODY

Were Angry at Winston Churchill For Interfering in Quarrel.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Nov. 27.—A London cable to the Tribune says:

An astonishing story of a strike among the lords of the admiralty is told in this week's Truth. It seems that Winston Churchill, the first lord, brought the strike upon himself by personally interfering in a personal grievance on the part of a junior officer. The incident having been reported to Whitehall through the usual official channels, the sea lords respectfully remonstrated with their chief and then the remonstrance not being favorably received, resigned in a body.

Apparently this had the desired effect for the affair has evidently blown over.
