

The Duke's Duck Bag

Secures Fifty-Two Birds With His Own Gun at Poplar Point.

Delighted With His First Morning's Sport on Lake Francis.

Today the Party Takes Train Again for the Journey East.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 7.—York Lodge, Lake Manitoba, via Poplar Point, Oct. 7.—Yesterday and today were probably the most informal spent by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and party since they began their tour through Canada.

For five hours the sound of the guns could be heard from every part of the big marsh, and shortly after ten o'clock a canoe arrived at the Lodge.

Tomorrow morning the guests will again go after the ducks, and immediately after luncheon on their return the party will leave for the train.

It is the intention to afford them an opportunity to witness a thrilling scene near Poplar Point tomorrow before the departure of the train.

KILLED WHILE THRESHING. Farmer Mangled Fatally in Farming Machine.

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—While threshing on Wm. Scott's farm near W. Neepawa today, a young man named Peter Younter slipped into a cylinder of the machine and was fatally injured.

WORKING AT EXTENSION. Operations in the Tunnel Started Yesterday—Amalgamating Unions.

From Our Own Correspondent. Nanaimo, Oct. 7.—The condition of affairs at Extension is little changed, with the exception the work commenced in the tunnel today.

It has been found that no discrimination was made in the matter of the Ladiesmith men. The miners are agitating for amalgamation among the different unions of the Island.

ANARCHIST MURDER IS NOT BEING ALLOWED NOTORIETY. Albany, N.Y., Oct. 7.—State Superintendent of Prisons has given orders that Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley, will be the subject of no publicity while in prison.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

GERMAN EXPORTS. For the Quarter Increase in Shipments to United States.

Berlin, Oct. 7.—The final figures as to the exports from all Germany to the United States during the third quarter of the year show a total of $34,777,597, or an increase of $388,922.

QUAKERS WIN. Secure One Match Against Bosanquet's Eleven.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 7.—The Philadelphia cricket team terminated its final International match with Bosanquet's English eleven here today by winning by 223 runs.

REVIEW AT HALIFAX. Minister of Militia Has Decided Not to Cancel It.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Dr. Montassembert, director-general of public health, sent a report to the militia department today advising the cancellation of the review at Halifax.

OTLANTIC-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CANADA'S CENSUS

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—The census authorities say the final returns will give the population of Canada over five and a half millions.

CLARKE WALLIAGE. His Condition Reported as Not so Favorable.

Woodbridge, Ont., Oct. 7.—Clarke Walliage's condition is not quite so favorable. He is being administered in effort to change condition of blood.

ANOTHER COMMISSION. Lieutenant Scarth Given Position in South African Constabulary.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Lieutenant Scarth, late of the Mounted Police, a son of the Deputy Minister of Agriculture, has been given a commission in the South African Constabulary.

FIND ON TEXADA. Discovery of Rich Gold Quartz Leads to Excitement.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—Another very rich find of gold has been made at Texada, about four miles from the Van And, by C. Miller, one hundred pounds of quartz taken from the surface being worth $3,000.

Great Storms Visit Europe. From France Come Reports of Many Wrecks on Channel Coast.

Germany Has Suffered Heavily—Many Persons Injured at Frankfurt.

Paris, Oct. 7.—Violent storms are raging along the French coast, particularly Brittany. Many wrecks are reported in the Channel.

The harbor of Dunkirk and many northern harbors are crowded with vessels that have sought refuge.

The storm extends even to the Mediterranean. Much damage has been done by wind and rain at Belfort and at other places.

Germany Has Suffered Heavily—Many Persons Injured at Frankfurt.

Berlin, Oct. 7.—Reports from various parts of Germany tell of violent storms yesterday and today.

SHAMROCK II. Being Placed in Winter Quarters at New London.

New York, Oct. 7.—From present indications it is highly probable there will be some very intense racing among the yachts this season.

It is the intention to afford them an opportunity to witness a thrilling scene near Poplar Point tomorrow before the departure of the train.

KILLED WHILE THRESHING. Farmer Mangled Fatally in Farming Machine.

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—(Special.)—While threshing on Wm. Scott's farm near W. Neepawa today, a young man named Peter Younter slipped into a cylinder of the machine and was fatally injured.

WORKING AT EXTENSION. Operations in the Tunnel Started Yesterday—Amalgamating Unions.

From Our Own Correspondent. Nanaimo, Oct. 7.—The condition of affairs at Extension is little changed, with the exception the work commenced in the tunnel today.

It has been found that no discrimination was made in the matter of the Ladiesmith men. The miners are agitating for amalgamation among the different unions of the Island.

ANARCHIST MURDER IS NOT BEING ALLOWED NOTORIETY. Albany, N.Y., Oct. 7.—State Superintendent of Prisons has given orders that Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley, will be the subject of no publicity while in prison.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

London, Oct. 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional treaty abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

INSURANCE SUIT. Mrs. Stephens Receives Half of the Policy.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—The Master in Ordinary awarded Mrs. Barclay Stephens, of Montreal, $5,850 in her suit against the Covenant Mutual Life Company.

CLAYTON-BELWER TREATY. Daily Chronicle Says Great Britain Agrees to its Abrogation.

Shooting of Hasenratz

Preliminary Investigation Opened at the Provincial Police Court Yesterday.

Several Witnesses Tell Story of the Unfortunate Occurrence.

At the provincial police court yesterday afternoon the preliminary investigation in the case of Ernest Stevens, charged with shooting Isaac Hasenratz with intent to kill, was begun before Magistrate Hall.

The prisoner was defended by Mr. George E. Powell, and Superintendent Hussey, of the provincial police, examined the witnesses for the prosecution.

Carl Porgeson, 11 years old, sworn, and examined by Superintendent Hussey—Lives with his parents on Spitting Alley, last Thursday went hunting with the accused and Jack Allen. Ernest Stevens had the gun produced in court, which witness identified.

Witness picked him up. He said: Stevens shot me. He intended to shoot me.

It was not dark. The sun was still shining. Did not see any birds. Saw Stevens go into the woods. The shot was fired immediately after. Had look over the ground since. Could see a man all right from where Hasenratz was shot.

In cross-examination, Mr. Powell tried to prove that the witness would be difficult to see a man in the bush where Hasenratz stood from where Stevens stood, without much result.

Heard something said about a woodpecker. Did not pay much attention with the boys were saying. Did not hear Hasenratz say anything to the boys. Was about a couple of rods from him when he fell. Stevens stood about 100 feet from where Hasenratz was shot.

Ernest Rutian, aged 11 years, sworn—Went out hunting last Thursday with his father and the two Hasenratz boys. Met Ernest Hasenratz and his brother, Carl Porgeson, Jack Allen, and Ernest Stevens in the transfer field. They began kicking horse manure at Mr. Hasenratz.

He told them to stop and they went on. He did not see him shoot. Ernest Stevens went into the woods and fired. Did not see him shoot. Ernest Stevens went into the woods and fired. Did not see him shoot.

Cross-examined—Was close to his father when he heard Hasenratz say he would wring their necks.

Ernest Hasenratz, 12 years old, sworn—Went shooting last Thursday with his father and his brother, Carl Porgeson, Jack Allen, and Ernest Stevens in the transfer field. They began kicking horse manure at Mr. Hasenratz.

He told them to stop and they went on. He did not see him shoot. Ernest Stevens went into the woods and fired. Did not see him shoot.

Cross-examined—Did not hear accused or the transfer field. He saw Ernest Stevens with a woodpecker. After his father fell he ran to Buckland's to get water. Met Carl and Ernest with him. Have seen the rifle, quail and woodpecker in the field.

George M. Perdue, city detective, identified the rifle as one he had taken from the prisoner's room and brought to the court. He also said a box of cartridges which he had found with the rifle.

The examination of the other witnesses was postponed till Monday, October 14, at 2 o'clock p.m.

Sir Claude Macdonald

Distinguished British Diplomat Sails for Japan by Express of India.

His Opinions on Chinese and Japanese Relations With Great Britain.

Sir Claude Macdonald, recently appointed British minister to Japan, and who was British ambassador at Peking during the historical siege of the legations, is a passenger by the Empress of India, which sailed for the Orient early this morning.

Sir Claude and Lady Macdonald, who suffered all the horrors of the siege, will proceed to Japan, where Sir Claude will assume his new diplomatic duties after a four-day journey.

In the course of an interview in Montreal, while speaking of the terrible days spent within the legation walls, the ambassador declared that the newspaper accounts had in no way over-colored the actual conditions.

He said that the Chinese were not so much to be pitied as they were represented to be by the foreign press during the siege, although some people had attempted to make out since the release that matters had not reached such a serious pitch.

He said that he had accepted the Chinese escort to the sea no one would have been left to tell the tale. It was not shared the same fate as Baron von Ketteler, and as it was the representatives of Holland and Austria who were wounded.

Sir Claude said that the ignorance of the Chinese is most appalling, so much so, that the masses are unable to make any distinction between the different nationalities, and that the Chinese are more partial to Russia than to England during the trouble, for, he says, they were always ready to believe the worst of the other powers.

Neither could he say that Great Britain had lost prestige in that part of the world. Of course, he said, the trade competition of the world, Germany pushing her pretty closely, but there was nothing to indicate that England's prestige had suffered in that part of the world.

Sir Claude also related an incident that was not the case, even with the Chinese themselves, for, while they were bombarding the legations, the commander of the British forces, when, as a matter of fact, the Spanish minister was the senior of the diplomatic corps.

It likewise happened that on a certain occasion another minister had signed a communication to the Chinese, but when the answer came back it was sent direct to Sir Claude.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

He said that the Boxer movement, the minister said, would never have amounted to much had not a famine prevailed all over that portion of the empire, resulting in large bodies of peasant troops in the streets.

NEWS OF THE ORIENT

Mourning in Japanese Capital For President McKinley—Suicide in China.

Steamer Duke of Fife, which arrived yesterday from the Orient, reported that when she left Yokohama, that port and Tokio were in mourning for President McKinley, and the day following her departure, on September 21, a memorial service was to be held at Tokio under the auspices of Col. Buck, the United States minister to Japan.

The Emperor of Japan announced that he would be represented at this service by a prince of the blood, and that Chinese and foreign representatives in the Japanese capital had accepted invitations to be present.

News was received from Foochow of the public suicide of a Chinese widow before an audience of several hundred spectators. The poor woman resolved on committing the deed soon after the death of her husband, and giving notice to her relatives to be present to witness the act.

Twice arrangements were made to carry out the suicide, but on account of the ravages of a typhoid epidemic, the ceremony was twice postponed. The unfortunate woman sold the paddy field she possessed for $100, and purchased some splendid clothes and a coffin with the money.

Finally, getting tired of her intention, she had brought before him, and kindly expostulated with her, pointing out the unreasonableness and wrong of the resolve. She said that she had no other children were dead, and that she no longer desired to live.

The Taoist's public protest was a little or turn her for her purpose, and the sender for the brother-in-law to the yamen and ordering him to prevent her carrying out her intention was equally useless.

Generally, the Taoist tried to frighten her by the assertion that such visitations as the late typhoid and floods had been brought about through such wickedness as hers. She said that she had learned of the coming of the Royal visitors had not time to make a gift. In his dilemma he was at a loss what to do.

After a while he came to the conclusion that he would make a pot-latch of half his wages to the Duke. He had $120 coming in, and he went to Mr. Landsberg and asked if he would purchase the half his wages to him and give the other half to the Duke. It was not until after a lengthy explanation of the financial position of the Duke that the Indian allowed his pot-latch to drop.

Among the unique incidents noticed during the recent visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall to this city, was the fact that a young man, a student of the University of Toronto, had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.

There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings. There are three of these buildings, and the young man had been engaged by Mr. Landsberg at the exhibition buildings.