Why the Munster Bank Failed.

DUBLIN, July 29.—Extensive frauds have been discovered in the accounts of the Munster bank. Farquarhson, one of the joint managers of the Dublin branch, is missing, with £70,000 of the bank's funds. Warrants have been issued and sent in every direction to secure his arrest. The accountant's balance sheet of the Munster bank shows liabilities of £2,148,000 and assets of £2,187,000. It is believed the reserves, amounting to £225,000, will suffice to cover all risks.

Sales are made openly despite the presence of the inspectors. The animals are shocking spectacles. A thousand diseased sheep are bought at the yards daily by mercenary "scalpers" and sold to the unsuspecting public as good mutton. A reporter visited the pens yesterday and twenty-eight of them contained diseased sheep in a everage there were twenty diseased sheep in each pen. Scab, foot rot and glanders were the ailments of the entire lot. The sheep were slaughtered and are now in the butchers' shops.

Where Gen. Grant Will be Buried. NEW YORK, July 29,-The site chosen for Grant's tomb is on a sort of promontory on the Hudson river, and is the highest point in Manhattanville. The spot suggests revolutionary war memories. Fort Lee is opposite, the old fort in Central park is on the southeast, Fort Washington is on the north, and the highlands near West Point shut in the horizon beyond Tappan See. No structures can be erected to break the uniformity of the view. The site is remote from the lines of travel, and about eight miles from the city hall. It was Gen. Grant's own wish that he should be buried in New York.

GETTING BACK TO WORK,

Laborers Over.

The finding of the arbitrators on the strike has been accepted by both parties resume work this morning. The Bricklayers' union held a meeting last night and declared they would conform to the rules of their union and not work with non-union men. The Master builders also met and tendered their thanks to the arbitrators on the matter. A deputation waited on the bricklayers and learned their attitude in regard to non-union men. They discussed the question and all they had to give the reporters was that the men would resume work this morning and would have no non-union men to contend with. Their was tantamount to saying that those who worked during the strike would either join the union or quit. Some laborers who resumed work on a small job yesterday morning found four non-union employed. They refused to work with them unless they joined the union.
