

INTRODUCTION

BY

REV. JOHN POTTS, D.D.

---

SEVERAL years ago, I wrote an introduction to Mrs. Pearsall Smith's book known as "THE CHRISTIAN'S SECRET OF A HAPPY LIFE." Another edition is demanded by Canadian readers, who are hungering and thirsting after righteousness. With greater confidence than I expressed before, do I now recommend this precious volume to all who wish to feast at the King's table, and travel on the King's highway, "with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads." Under the charm of Mrs. Smith's pen, we are made ashamed of our wilderness wanderings, and are led to wonder at the simplicity of the way into the higher life—the life of "Holiness unto the Lord." The writer deals, with sanctified sagacity, with the daily difficulties of Christian life, until, in spite of all obstacles, the voice of the Spirit is heard, saying, "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward," and, as they go forward in obedient faith, doubt and fear and difficulty depart, and the Divine Joshua leads them out of the
