THE CONTROVERSY ENDED. A companion volume to "Patriarchs and Prophets."

Beginning with our Lord's great prophecy given while viewing Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, this book outlines the history of the whole dispensation, down to the time when "sin and sinners are no more, God's entire universe is clean, and the great controversy is forever ended."

This volume presents the most wonderful and intensely interesting history that has ever been written, of the great conflict between Christianity and the powers of darkness, as illustrated in the lives of Christian martyrs and reformers on the one hand, and wicked men and persecuting powers on the other.

Thirteenth edition; greatly improved, and several new chapters added. Has 26 full-page illustrations, and contains over 700 octavo pages. Eighty thousand copies already printed. Sold by subscription. Elegant and durable bindings. Prices, from $2.25 to $4.50. Published also in French, German, and Danish.

SKETCHES FROM THE LIFE OF PAUL.

Among the many valuable works upon the life of Paul, this book occupies a field peculiarly its own. The historical narrative is traced down in a clear and connected manner, from the time of Paul's first dealings with the church as a persecutor until he was "offered up" a willing sacrifice for the cause which he had learned to love more than his own life. Besides this, from his labors and sufferings, and from the instruction which he gave to the churches under his care, practical moral lessons are drawn for the church of to-day. This is the distinctive feature of the book, and is that which makes it particularly valuable. 334 pages. Price, 80 cents.

THE LIFE OF CHRIST.

The keynote of this book is the great truth that in Christ the love of the Father is revealed, that "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself." Satan's work has been to misrepresent the character of God, before not only men, but angels, and to deny the authority of his law. Christ, who was "God manifest in the flesh," by his death redeems the transgressor, and maintains the immutability of the law. Thus the love and the justice of God are vindicated. As Christ himself said, looking forward to his death, "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all unto me." The working out of this purpose is traced through the life of Christ on earth. It is shown how Christ, as man's representative, endured the temptations by which man is overcome, and conquered in behalf of man; and that man, becoming a partaker of the divine nature, is enabled to overcome as Christ overcame. God in Christ, and Christ in his followers, can withstand all the power of Satan, and resist his temptations. And as Christ came to reveal the love of God, so his followers are to reveal the love of Christ.

The book will be nicely printed, and illustrated with numerous beautiful and original engravings, and will be published uniform in size and style with "Patriarchs and Prophets."
