

Young Folks' Dialogues

For young people of fifteen years. New and original.

Children's Dialogues are always enjoyable and are especially relished by the parents and friends of the youthful performers, but just where to obtain the material for such purposes is always a difficult question. To meet this want was the occasion of the preparation of this book, and to that end only such dialogues have been inserted as are bright and sparkling, and are at the same time short, plain and simple, and easy to produce.

Easy Entertainments for Young People

This book contains seven pleasing plays and other entertainments which are published separately at 15 cent each, but are here bound together in one volume for the price given. All the plays are easily produced, requiring little in the way of scenery, properties or costumes, and are certain to prove successful even in the hands of the inexperienced. They have an added attraction in that they are all new and original. They are, The Court of the Year, The Courting of Mother Goose, Dr. Cure-All, My Country, The Sulgless Family, Vice-Versa.

Paper binding, 25 cents; boards, 40 cents.

Child's Own Speaker

For children of five years.

A collection of Recitations, Mother Songs, Concert Pieces, Dialogues, and Tableaux, in all 100 pieces, many of which are entirely new as well as novel in arrangement, and have been specially written for this book.

While the tender age of the little ones for whom this collection is intended has been kept in mind, mere "lat" talk has been excluded, and only such pieces as contain something worth memorizing have been inserted.
Paper binding, 15 cts.; boards, 25 cts.

Little People's Dialogues

For children of ten years. Everything original and written specially for this book by Clara J. Denton.

In many cases a degree of novelty and originality is found in the Dialogues that places them far in advance of the average productions of this kind.

Provision has been made for all occasions, thus adapting the book to the most varied kinds of entertainments and exhibitions.
Paper binding, 25 cts.; boards, 40 cts.

Young Folks' Recitations

Numbers 1 and 2. For young people of fifteen years.

Contains Readings, Recitations, Dialogues, and Tableaux, suited to the Home Circle, Juvenile Concerts, School Exhibitions, Sunday-School Gatherings, etc., etc.

While some of the old favorites have been retained, these books are largely made up of fresh, crisp, and wholesome selections, many of them appearing for the first time in permanent form.

Quotations

By Agnes H. Morton, B. C.

This is a clever compilation of pithy quotations selected from a great variety of sources, and alphabetically arranged according to the sentiment. An important division of the book is the characteristic lines from well known authors. In it are hundreds of familiar sayings of widely varying reputation, accredited to their original sources, and the popular quotations in current use, together with many rare bits of prose and verse not generally found in similar collections.

Holiday Selections for Readings and Recitations

By Sara J. Journey

The selections in this volume are adapted to all the different holidays of the year and are classified accordingly. Fully half of the pieces are for Christmas, but a large proportion is also for the New Year, St. Valentine's Day, Washington's Birthday, Easter, Arbor Day, Decoration Day, Fourth of July, and Thanksgiving. The selections in all cases are strictly appropriate to the occasions for which they are designed.

Paper binding, 25 cts.; cloth, 50 cts.

Choice Humor

For Reading and Recitation.

As its name implies, these selections are chosen with the greatest care, avoiding the coarse and vulgar on the one hand, and the flat and flippant on the other.

The repertoires of many of the best amateur and professional readers have been examined, and the choicest bits of humor have been carefully culled and bound up in this rich, gold-sheaf, and are here offered to the public for the first time in book form.

Paper binding, 30 cts.; boards, 50 cts.

Correspondence

By Agnes H. Morton, B. C.

This is the most intelligent and thoroughly literary work on the subject ever offered to the public.

Its object is to assist inexperienced persons to develop their talent for correct and graceful letter writing. This gratifying result it will accomplish not so much by adhering to the numerous forms of letters applicable to all conceivable business and social occasions, as by following the excellent suggestions and directions with which the work abounds for the writing of original letters.
Cloth binding, 50 cents.

The Art of Conversation

By J. P. Mahaffy.

Is there any method by which we can improve our conversation? Is there any theory which we can apply to our own case, and that of others? Are there not, at least, some practical rules which we ought to know, and which will be of service to us in the performance of this part of our social duties?

These, and a hundred other questions are fully and affirmatively answered in this book. The author has had access to the highest social circles, and speaks from personal observation and experience, and the conclusions he draws, and the many valuable hints and suggestions he gives will commend themselves to every thoughtful reader.
Cloth binding, 30 cts.

The Chairman's Guide
