Plenty of Time.

Planty of time—Plenty of time;

One:

It reacherous chance

With a distance see and so much we be taught.

And the battle with evit each day to be fought;

With wonders above us, hence had around

Which saces are seeking to mark and expound;

With work to be done in our fast passing prime.

Can ever there be for us plenty of time?

Our schooling at most lasts a few score of years.

Spent in sunshine and shadow, in smiles or in the stars:
While noneare quite equal howeer hey be class d.

class'd.

And Judgments too often are faultily passed.

Twitt eternity past and its future to stand

Like a child see surrounded on one speck of land.

There to work out the duties that make life sublime.

Ob, surely there cannot be plenty of time

Fraternal charity is the sword of our predestination, since it shows that we are the true disciples of Christ.

Advice to a Young Man.

Never whip your brain. All high prossure is dangerous. Study to think as quietly and as easily as you breathe. Nover force yourself to learn what you have no talent for. Knowledge without love will remain a lifeless manufacture, not a living growth. Be content to be ignorant of many things that you may know one thing well, and that the thing which God especially endowed you to know. It requires fire to fuse the materials of thinking, no less than to melt the iron in the foundry. But remember this, however strong you may be, physically, to strike a blow, and however sharp, intellectually, to recognize a fact and discern a difference, your success in the game of life depends on the serious culture which you give to the third formative force in human character, your moral nature, and of this element a comprehensive ex-pression is found in the right simple word love. On this all propnets poets and philosophers are agreed. On this all prophets, Prof. Blackie.
