

GOOD SUMMER READING

BOY. By Marie Corelli.

To be published this month.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

“The most mirth-provoking book that has appeared in many a day”—Toronto Globe

The Lunatic at Large

By J. Storer Clouston.

“One of the best bits of light reading published this year”
—Free Press.

Cloth, $1.00
Paper, 50c.

The Latest War Book

A Gentleman in Khaki

By John Oakley.

A rattling novel of the Anglo-Boer War, which will find numberless Canadian readers.

In handsome Paper Cover.
at 30c.

DEACON BRADBURY

By Edwin Asa Dix.

“A book which has touches of the ‘David Harum’ manner, but is really far better constructed and much more thoroughly developed”
—Boston Budget.

“One of the strongest books of the season.”
—North American, Philadelphia.

Excellent
Summer Reading.

A Pauper Millionaire

By Austin Fryers.

“A capital story which once begun will be finished at a sitting.”
—Toronto Globe

A new edition with a striking cover.

Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

“We wish there were more men like ‘Deacon Bradbury’ in this wicked world.”
—Atlanta Constitution.

Cloth, $1.25.
Paper, 75c.

Houses of Glass

By Wallace Lloyd.

“It is a character study of profound interest.”
—Albany Times-Union

“Human nature as we know it, speaks everywhere. The book is an interesting study of human life.”
—Boston Ideas.

Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 50c.

Liberal Discounts to the Trade.

W. J. GAGE & CO., Limited
Publishers TORONTO.