THE General Assembly Journal FOR 1872.

A DAILY REPORT OF THE

Proceedings of the next General Assembly of the PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Which meets in Detroit ON MAY 16, 1872.

Will be published by the undersigned, uniform in size and price with those of former years.

It is probable that questions of unusual moment will come before this Assembly for discussion—relating to

More General and Systematic Ministry; The Number and Management of our Boards; The Basis and Ratio of Representation in Future Assemblies;

Unemployed Ministers; Sustentation, etc. Some of these subjects, not existing general attention outside of our denomination, and they are certainly matters of great practical importance, and of special interest to all intelligent members of the Presbyterian Church at this time.

Taking advantage of the experience of former years, the utmost care will be used to secure and promptly publish full and accurate Reports of all the proceedings. The most important debates will be published substantially verbatim.

Subscribers sending $1.00, and a two cent postage stamp in addition (or before the 31st of May) will receive

THE JOURNAL AND ALSO A

Map of the Presbyterian Church! Any person sending five or more subscribers with the cash, at the rate of $1 each, to one post office address, will receive a Free Copy. Single subscriptions, $1. The paper will be mailed punctually each day, with postage prepaid. Please subscribe now.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Notices of the Press.

There are few intelligent American families in which HARPER'S MAGAZINE would not be an appreciated and highly welcome guest. There is no monthly Magazine of intelligent reading family can afford to be without. Many Magazines are circulated. HARPER'S is edited. There is not a Magazine that is printed which shows more intelligent pains expended on its articles and mechanical execution. There is not a cheaper Magazine published. There is not, confessedly, a more popular Magazine in the world. —See England Illustrated.

A repository of biography and history, literature, science and art, unexcelled by any other American publication. The volumes are as valuable as a mere work of reference as any cyclopaedia we can place in our libraries. HARPER'S MAGAZINE is a record of travel every where since the hour of its establishment. Livingsstone and Gordon Cumming in Africa; Strain among the Andes and Ross Brown in the East; Speke on the Nile and Macgregor on the Jordan—indeed, all recent travellers of note have seen their most important discoveries reproduced in these pages. Most of our younger and many of our older writers find here their literary biography.

Subscriptions.—1871. TERMS: HARPER'S MAGAZINE, ONE YEAR, $4 00 An Extra Copy of either the MAGAZINE, WEEKLY or HAZARD will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Numbers at $1 each, in one remittance, or six copies for $2 00, without extra copy. Subscriptions to HARPER'S MAGAZINE, WEEKLY and HAZARD to one address for one year, $7 00. Back Numbers can be supplied at any time. A Complete Set of HARPER'S MAGAZINE, now comprising 45 volumes, in neat cloth binding, will be sent per volume. Single volumes, by mail, postpaid.

The postage on HARPER'S MAGAZINE is 24 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post-office.

NEW NATIONAL MAGAZINE

FOR CANADA.

Prospectus of the CANADIAN MONTHLY AND NATIONAL REVIEW.

A feeling has long prevailed that the intellectual life of the Canadian nation ought to have some organ in the form of a good periodical. Attempts have been made to give it such an organ, but hitherto they have not been successful.

In so far as measures they may have been premature, but it is believed that their failure has been mainly due to the want of a sufficiently strong and well-organized staff of writers, and of a fund sufficient to guarantee to contributors the fair remuneration, without which, as multiplied experience proves, a periodical cannot be successfully carried on.

These requisites have now been effectually secured. The literary aid and materials requisite for the support of a first-class magazine will be sought, without restriction, from all quarters—Canadian, British, and Foreign. But it is intended that the Magazine shall have a specifically Canadian character, such as, it is hoped, will enlist Canadian patriotism in its support.

Futiles will be treated with the aim of infusing as much as possible of the historical and philosophical spirit into the popular discussion of political questions.

Religious questions, if they form the subject of any papers, will be treated with a similar aim. Mr. GOLDMAN SMITH has consented both to contribute regularly, and to assist in conducting the magazine.

Intending subscribers will please send us their names. ADAM, STEVENSON & CO. Publishers, Toronto.

CLUB RATES: To parties wishing to secure a really excellent Monthly Periodical, of national value and interest, the Publishers offer the following advantageous terms for Clubs—Cash in advance. The postage, two cents per month, is included in the following rates, each magazine being sent pre-paid from office of publication:—

One copy for one year $ 3 00 Two copies " " " 5 50 Three " " " 7 50 Five " " " 11 00 Ten, and one to persons sending club 25 00

Letters containing remittances should be registered, and addressed ADAM, STEVENSON & CO. Publishers, Toronto.

TO ADVERTISERS. The Publishers would direct the attention of Advertisers to the importance of THE CANADIAN MONTHLY as a medium of advantageous advertising, being contributed to by the foremost native writers, and being destined to circulate in extensive circles of the reading population of the Dominion.

All advertisements should reach the Publishers by the 10th of each month. A schedule of rates for advertisements is prepared, and may be had of the Publishers.

IN ONE YEAR THE CHRISTIAN UNION

Has leaped to a circulation surpassed by only one Religious Journal in the United States, and that one over twenty-one years old.

WHY IS IT? BECAUSE; First, HENRY WARD BEECHER

is its Editor, and the Editorials, Star Papers, and Lecturo-Room Talks are welcomed by thousands and thousands of Christians everywhere, who want thoroughly good and attractive reading, and who have at heart the interest of the whole Church of Christ; while the paper is full of admirable reading matter on every live topic of the day, the contributors being representative men of all denominations.

BECAUSE, Secondly, ITS FORM, Sixteen pages, large quarto, SETTING AND CUT, is so convenient for reading, binding, and preservation as to be a great and special merit in its favor, apart from its superior literary attractions.

BECAUSE, Thirdly, It is the Brightest and Most Interesting Religious Paper published, being quoted from by the Press of the entire country, and extensively than any other, the whole editorial work being in the hands of experienced and cultivated men.

BECAUSE, Fourthly, It has something for every member of the household. Admirable contributed and editorial articles, discussing all the great topics of the day; fresh information on unacknowledged subjects; much matter of a high and pure religious tone; poems, household stories, and chat for the little ones.

BECAUSE, Fifthly, MARSHALL'S Household Engraving of Washington!

A fine impression of which is presented to every new subscriber to the paper, is a really superb work of art, a subject appealing to every American, and, as was said by F. O. C. DARLEY, THE CELEBRATED ARTIST, "is found all quarters, the best work, engraved in line, published in the country, as well as the most copy of Stuart's portrait."

BECAUSE, Sixthly, A new and charming Serial, MY WIFE AND I: Or, HARRIET HENDERSON'S HISTORY. By HARRIET BEECHER STOWE.

FREE FOR TWO MONTHS. Send for Circulars with full particulars. All subscriptions, applications for specimen copies and agencies, etc., received and attended to by J. B. FORD & Co., Publishers, 39 Park Row, New York.

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY, AN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.

Edited by J. G. HOLLAND. The Best of the American Monthlies.

"In the brilliant variety of its articles, in vigor, fidelity and richness of wood engravings; in purity of tone, and richness and ripeness of thought in the Editorial department it surpasses all contemporaries."

Terms for 1872: Subscription price $4. Including two back numbers (Nov. and Dec., 1871), $4 50. With all the back numbers of Vols. 1, 2 and 3, only $5 50. These contain more than 3,000 pages of the choicest Illustrated Literature—a whole library in itself.

Subscriptions are received by all Newsdealers and Bookbinders at the above rates, and by SCRIBNER & CO., 69 Broadway, New York.

'NEW YORK TRIBUNE,

FOR 1872.

The consolidation of Italy, so long fragmentary and impotent, into one powerful state, with Rome as its capital; the humiliation of France through the series of crushing defeats, and the consequent capitulation of her proud and gay metropolis; the expulsion of the Bourbons from the Spanish throne and the substitution for them of a clan of the most liberal among royal houses; the virtual absorption of the Kingdoms of Saxony, Wurtemberg, Bavaria, with Baden, Hesse, the Hanse Towns, &c., into the headship of Prussia, into the triumphant and powerful empire of Germany; and the arming of Russia to reassert her preponderance in the councils of Europe, or to prosecute her often postponed but never relinquished designs on the great city founded by Constantine, and the vast but decaying and anarchical dominion of the Sultan, all combine to invest with profound interest the ever changing phases of the Old World.

The Tribune, through its correspondence, stationed at all points in Europe where there are important political movements or imminent, aims to present a complete and instructive panorama of events on that continent, and to mirror the prolonged struggle between middle-aged Feudalism and Ecclesiasticism on the one hand, and the more certain, but the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking vanity, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and compelling to those who would not to wield it.

To this beneficent and daily needed reform, THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

In our own country, a war upon corruption and rascality in office has been inaugurated in our city, whereby the Government of our State has been revolutionized through an initial triumph of Reform which surpasses the most sanguine anticipations. It is morally certain that the movement thus inaugurated cannot, in its progress, be circumscribed to any locality or any party, but that its purifying influence is destined to be felt in every part of the Union, rebuking vanity, exposing robbery, wresting power from politicians by trade, and compelling to those who would not to wield it.

To this beneficent and daily needed reform, THE TRIBUNE will devote its best energies, regardless of personal interests or party predilections, esteeming the choice of honest and faithful men to office as of all New Departures the most essential and auspicious.

The virtual surrender by the Democratic party of its hostility to Equal Rights regardless of Colour has divested our current politics of half their bygone intensity. However parties may henceforth rise or fall, it is clear that the fundamental principles which have hitherto honorably distinguished the Republican party are completely fixed, by the practical acceptance by the whole country. The right of every man to his own limbs and show—the equality of all citizens before the law—the inability of a State to enslave any portion of its people—the duty of the Union to guarantee to every citizen the full enjoyment of his liberties until he forfeits it by crime—such are the broad and first foundations of our national edifice; and paled by the hand which shall seek to displace them! Though not yet twenty years old, the Republican party has completed the duties of its mission, and may fairly invoke thereon the sternest judgment of Man and the benignant smile of God.

Henceforth the mission of our Republic is one of Peaceful Progress. To protect the weak and the humble from violence and oppression—to extend the boundaries and diffuse the blessings of civilization—to stimulate the industry and the production of new inventions for economizing Labour, and thus enlarging Production to draw nearer to each other the producers of Food and of Fabrics, of Grain and of Metals, and thus enhance the gains of industry by reducing the cost of transportation and exchanging between far distant and comprehensive, the inspiring task to which this Nation now addresses itself, and by which it would fain tribute to the progress, enlightenment, and happiness of our race. To this great and good work THE TRIBUNE contributes its zealous, persistent efforts.

Agencies will continue to be more especially cultivated in its Weekly and Semi-Weekly Editions, to which some of the ablest and most successful tillers of the soil will steadily contribute. No farmer who sells $300 worth of produce per annum can afford to do without our Market Reports, or others equally lucid and comprehensive. If he should read nothing else but what relates to his own calling and its rewards, we believe that no farmer who can read at all can afford to do without such a journal as THE TRIBUNE. And we aspire to make it equally as interesting to the cultivators of the fields of Productive Labour. We spend more and more money on our columns each year, as our countrymen's generous patronage enables us to do; and we are resolved that our issues of former years shall be exceeded in varied excellence and interest by those of the year 1872. Farmers in every State will make our journal better, by sending in your subscriptions and increasing your Clubs for the year just before us!

TERMS OF THE TRIBUNE. Daily Tribune, Mail subscribers, $10 per annum. Semi-Weekly Tribune, Mail subscribers, $1 per annum. Five copies or over, six each; an extra copy will be sent for every club of ten sent for at one time, or if preferred a copy of Recollections of a Busy Life, by Mr. Greeley.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. To Mail subscribers: One copy one year, 25 cents. Two copies one year, 45 cents. To one address, sent by post-office: 10 copies, $1 10 each. 20 copies, " 1 20 each. 50 copies, " 1 50 each.

To names of subscribers, all at one post-office: 10 copies, $1 10 each. 20 copies, " 1 20 each. 50 copies, " 1 50 each. And one extra copy to each club.

Persons entitled to an extra copy, can, if preferred, have either of the following books, postage prepaid:—Political Economy, by Horace Greeley; Pear Culture for Profit, by P. T. Quinn; the Elements of Agriculture, by Geo. E. Waring.

ADVERTISING RATES. Daily Tribune, 2c., 10c., 75c., and $1 per line. Semi-Weekly Tribune, 25 and 50 cents per line. Weekly Tribune, 2, 5, and 7 1/2 per line, according to position in the paper.

In making remittances always procure a draft on New York, or a Post-Office Money Order, if possible. Where neither of these can be procured, send the money, but always make it payable to the order of the publisher. The registration fee has been reduced to 15 cents, and the present registration system has been found by the postal authorities to be nearly an absolute protection against losses by mail. All postmasters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so. Terms cash in advance.
