VASSAR—BENSON.

Nuptial mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning at St. Mary's Church for the wedding of Miss Ida Mary Vassar, third daughter of Mrs. Vassar, Rose Street, Fort Rouge, and John Robinson Benson, son of Dr. Benson, of this city. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Cahill, during which some delightful music was rendered, Miss Barrett singing "O Perfect Love," Miss Desaulnier and A. A. Codd "Ave Maria." Mr. Gee of Christ Church presided at the organ.

The church had been prettily decorated by Miss Vassar's girl friends with quantities of the season's blossoms. The pretty bride, who was given away by her brother, John Vassar, wore the regulation robe de noce of white liberty satin over white silk, which was most becomingly carried out in the 1839 style with trimmings of Maltese lace and seed pearls. Her tulle veil, caught with orange blossoms, was embroidered in pearls. She carried a lovely shower of white roses and valley lilies. She wore a handsome ring, the gift of the groom.

Her only bridesmaid was Miss Ethel McKenzie of Toronto, who looked extremely well in a lovely gown of oyster grey chiffon cloth over pale blue silk. The full skirt was made with alternate ruchings of pale blue silk and bands of lace in the oyster grey shades. The bodice was correspondingly trimmed.

Her hat was of grey silk mohair braid, faced with pale blue tulle. The underneath brim was finished with ostrich plumes, shading from blue to white. She carried a shower of pink roses, and wore a brooch of a whip and horseshoe design, the gift of the groom. Harry Bruce was best man, and the ushers were J. Jennings and H. Worsley. After the ceremony a dainty dejeuner was served at the residence of the bride's mother.

Later Mr. and Mrs. Benson left on the West train for their future home at Trout Lake, B.C. The bride's going-away gown was a smart tailor-made of mixed grey cloth trimmed with stitched bands of pearl grey broadcloth. The Russian coat, trimmed with broad Parisian bands and gun-metal buttons, was worn over a blouse of champagne lace. A hat of pearl grey French chip simply trimmed with roses of the same shade and bands of grey silk completed a most tasteful costume.—Telegram.

THE LATE MRS. W. CAMPEAU

The funeral of Josephine Poirer, wife of William Campeau, took place on Thursday, June 23rd, from her late residence at St. Norbert, to St. Norbert Church. The services were conducted by the Rev. Father T. Campeau, brother-in-law of the deceased, assisted by the Rev. Father H. Kugener, as deacon, and Rev. Father Lalonde as sub-deacon.

The mother of the Rev. Father Campeau, aged 78 years, also two brothers and one sister, together with the husband and two children of the deceased, followed the body to the cemetery. Mrs. Guilbert, who resides in Montreal, was unable to reach St. Norbert in time to attend the funeral. The reverend sisters of the gray nuns and the school children met the funeral procession at the river, and assisted at the celebration of the mass for the repose of deceased's soul.

A beautiful and impressive sermon was given by Father Campeau, in which he dwelt on the many beautiful traits in the character of the deceased lady.

The church was heavily draped with black for the occasion. The pall-bearers were relatives and friends of the deceased. W. J. Bawlf at the request of Father Campeau, acted as director of the funeral arrangements.
