

EXCHANGE OF NOTES BETWEEN CANADA AND VENEZUELA AMENDING AND RENEWING TO OCTOBER 14, 1967 THE COMMERCIAL MODUS VIVENDI SIGNED AT CARACAS, OCTOBER 11, 1950⁽¹⁾

I

The Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys of Canada to the Acting Minister of External Affairs of Venezuela

No. 57

Caracas, September 30, 1966

YOUR EXCELLENCY:

I have the honour to refer to the modus vivendi governing commercial relations between Canada and Venezuela.

The Canadian Government feels that this modus vivendi has fostered the development of commercial relations between Canada and Venezuela. I accordingly have the honour to suggest that it be renewed for a further period of one year beginning October 14, 1966.

If Your Excellency's Government approves this suggestion, this Note and Your Excellency's reply could constitute an agreement between the Canadian Government and the Venezuelan Government to renew the modus vivendi of October 11, 1950 for a further period of one year.

I take this opportunity to present to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

JEAN-LUC PEPIN
Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys

His Excellency R. Nass,
