Ottawa, September 27, 1961

EXCELLENCY:

I have the honor to refer to Your Excellency's Note No. 180 of September 27, 1961, concerning cost-sharing and related arrangements with respect to planned improvements in the Continental Air Defense System, 1961. I am pleased to note that your Excellency's note, together with its Annex, is acceptable to the Government of the United States of America, and your proposal that it and my reply constitute an agreement between our two Governments effective this date is also acceptable. I am sure that the arrangements contemplated in this Note will constitute a most valuable contribution to the defense of the continent. I am sure that the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.
