

- 2 -

transfer of technology between Canada and the Federal Republic of Germany, involving government research organizations, the academic community, and private industry.

The Consultations are held every two years under the terms of the 1971 Federal Republic of Germany/Canada Agreement on Scientific and Technical Cooperation. The last Consultations took place in Bonn, Federal Republic of Germany in April 1985.

For further information contact:

Ben Gailor
Western Europe Programs Division
(613) 996-0104

- 30 -