

Pursuant to Special Order adopted Monday, February 20, 1967, the sitting was suspended between 7.00 o'clock and 8.00 o'clock p.m.

Bill C-259, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act and to repeal the Canadian Vessel Construction Assistance Act, was again considered in Committee of the Whole and progress having been made and reported, the Committee obtained leave to consider it again later this day.

MISCONDUCT IN THE GALLERY

Mr. SPEAKER: As honourable Members know, during the question period earlier today leaflets were thrown from the General Gallery to the floor of the Chamber. Thanks to the alertness of the House of Commons Protective Staff, the offender was partially frustrated in his attempts and he was forthwith taken into custody. The individual identified himself as one John Richard Campbell of no fixed address.

Standing order 14 reads, in part, as follows: "Any stranger admitted into any part of the House or Gallery, who misconducts himself...shall be taken into custody by the Sergeant-at-Arms; and no person so taken into custody shall be discharged without the Special Order of the House."

I should now like to obtain directions from the House before proceeding further.

On motion of Mr. Pennell, seconded by Mr. Stewart, it was ordered,—That, without prejudice to any later action that may be taken elsewhere, the person who identified himself as John Richard Campbell, be forthwith discharged from the custody of the Sergeant-At-Arms.

The House resumed consideration in Committee of the Whole of Bill C-259, An Act to amend the Income Tax Act and to repeal the Canadian Vessel Construction Assistance Act, which was reported with amendments, considered as amended and ordered for a third reading at the next sitting of the House.

Ordered,—That the said bill be reprinted.

At 9.37 o'clock p.m. the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole to consider a certain proposed resolution with respect to federal-provincial fiscal arrangements, and progress having been made and reported, the Committee obtained leave to consider it again at the next sitting of the House.

By unanimous consent, the House reverted to "Motions".

On motion of Mr. Pilon, seconded by Mrs. Rideout, it was ordered,—That the name of Mr. Gundlock be substituted for that of Mr. McCutcheon on the Standing Committee on Indian Affairs, Human Rights and Citizenship and Immigration.

On motion of Mr. Pilon, seconded by Mrs. Rideout, it was ordered,—That the name of Mr. MacInnis be substituted for that of Mr. Fane on the Standing Committee on National Defence.
