

McGILL UNIVERSITY
MONTREAL.

PHYSIOLOGICAL LABORATORY.

15th October, 1923

Dear Sir Arthur,

I decided to let Dr. Cassidy go for this term. While Dalhousie might have selected a more suitable time so far as we are concerned, it seemed only fair that one of our men should have the chance when the occasion offered.

Cassidy leaves for Halifax to-night.

Yours very truly
John Fair.