

DISCIPLINE.

-----

1. Instructors may require a student guilty of disorderly conduct, neglect of study, etc., to leave their classes. Persistence in such offences shall, after admonition by the instructor, be reported to the Dean, who may -at his discretion- reprimand the offender or refer the matter to the Faculty at its next meeting, and, in the interval, suspend the offender from classes.