

CHRIST APPEARS TO TWO OF HIS DISCIPLES.-Luke xxiv. 15.

the resurrection took place, it is related that power from on high. The hour had now two of the disciples went to Emmaus, a village come for Him to be separated from them; He a few miles from Jerusalem. While they was to be with them no longer in bodily shape were engaged in earnest conversation Jesus and presence. Then He led them out to drew near and walked with them; but they Bethany, lifted up His hands and blessed did not know Him. He asked them what them, and while doing this He was parted they were conversing about, and why they from them and carried up into heaven.

appeared so sad. Cleopas inquired if He had not heard of the things that had come to pass. He asked, "What things?" They answered, "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth." Then they spoke of the crucifixion, and said they had trusted that Jesus was the one who would redeem Israel. They also related the visit of the women to the tomb, and the fact that they had found it empty. Jesus told them these things seemed strange because they did not understand what had been foretold by the prophets. When they arrived at the village He accepted their invitation to tarry with them, and as they were breaking bread together He vanished from their sight. Then they knew who He was.

THE ASCENSION .- A full account is given us of the departure of Christ from the earth. According to His promise He met His disciples, and told them to go and preach the Gospel to all nations. He assured them that all power was given Him in heaven and earth, and He would be with His people even unto the end of the world. Not only did He have interviews with the apostles, and make Himself known to them, but we are told that He appeared to five hundred brethren at once. The closing scene was quite as extraordinary as any of the miraculous wonders that preceded it. After forty days had passed Jesus met His disciples again at Jerusalem. He told them
