

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

The Tour commenced by way of Geneva and Buffalo; a brief description of Erie; of Meadville; rest at Mercer; Pittsburgh; passage to Cincinnati in the steam-boat Ohioan; Wheeling; Marietta; Portsmouth; the steam-boat takes fire; Cincinnati; Louisville; Falls of the Ohio; the Ohio river; Ohio and Kentucky; confluence of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers; Point Girardou; beautiful appearance of fire on the prairie; St. Genevieve, old custom; Herculanum; gambling on board the steam-boats; St. Louis; Dr. M. Whitman; Mr. Fontenelle. 13

CHAPTER II.

Leave St. Louis for Liberty; passage up the Missouri; snags; a walk on shore; Jefferson city; river scenery; steam-boat Siam; sand bars; Lexington; steam-boat disaster; Liberty; Navahoe Indians; ride to Cantonment Leavenworth; amusing dialect; caravan commence their journey; first encampment; Ioway Indians; Blacksnake Hills; Nodaway river; Elk; crossed the Neshnabotana; rich soil; rapid rise of the north branch of Neshnabotana; mode of living; mounds of the west; crossing of the Missouri; Bellevue; Missionaries. . . : . . . 26

CHAPTER III.

Continuance at Council Bluffs; interesting scenery; Indian curiosity; information obtained about several Indian tribes; spasmodic cholera; an Indian chief killed; leave Bellevue for the Black Hills; storm of rain; heavy thunder storm; Elkhorn river, the country around; Loups fork of the Platte; manner of encamping; Big Ax, Pawnee chief; Indian feasting; fourth of July; Messrs. Dunlar and Allis; thunder storm; Indian ornaments; effects of drunkenness; bite of a rattle-snake; buffalo seen; Prai-