

I N D E X.

- W.
- WALACHIA, its situation, and chief towns, 537
- Wales, from whom the present inhabitants are descended, 392. Its situation, extent, and boundaries, ibid. Natural history of, ibid. The inhabitants, their manners and customs, ibid. State of religion there, 393. Literary history of, ibid. Cities, towns, &c. 394. Antiquities and curiosities, ibid. Commerce and manufactures, 395. Constitution and government, ibid. Revenues, 396. History of Wales, ibid.
- , prince of, his titles, 282
- Wall, great, in China, 695
- Wallace, William, the noble stand he made in Scotland, against the oppressions of the English, 183. Is betrayed into the hands of Edward I. ibid.
- Wallis, captain, summary of his southern discoveries, 980, note
- Walpole, sir Robert, the British minister, a review of his conduct, 332, 333
- Warsaw, the capital of Poland, 545
- Warwick, town of, 229
- Washington, George, appointed commander in chief of the American forces, 353. Takes possession of Boston, on its being evacuated by general Howe, 354. His general plan of conduct, 356. Surprises a brigade of Hessian troops, ibid. Captures lord Cornwallis, 365
- , college, 914
- Wat Tyler, account of his insurrection, in the reign of Richard II. of England, 301
- West Indies, See Indies, West.
- Westminster abbey, historical description of, 221
- , bridge, its description and dimensions, 220
- , hall, its dimensions, 221
- Westphalia, circle of, its divisions into provinces, 492
- Whale, description of that fish, its uses, and the manner of taking it, 66. Its enemies, 74
- Whale-killer of New England, 1895
- Wickliffe, John, the first person in Europe who publicly questioned the doctrines of the church of Rome, 203, 301, 501
- Wight, Isle of, its situation and extent, 399. Character of its air and soil, ibid.
- Wilkes, John, prosecuted for publishing the North Briton, 342. Quits the kingdom, and is outlawed, 343. Returns, and is chosen member for Middlesex, 345. Riots on account of his imprisonment, ibid. Is expelled the house of commons, and repeatedly elected, 346. Is elected to the offices of magistracy in the city of London, 347
- William, duke of Normandy, invades England, and kills Harold in battle, 289. Mounts the throne of England, 290. Character of his government, 291
- William, II. (Rufus) succeeds to the throne of England, in preference to his elder brother, Robert, 291. Is accidentally killed in the New Forest, Hampshire, 292
- , III. king of England, his pretensions and election to the crown, 325. Review of the principal transactions of his reign, 326. His character, 327
- Williamsburg, the capital of Virginia, 918
- Wilson, Dr. bishop of Sodor and Man, character of, 398
- Wind, defined, 26. The different kinds of, 27
- Windor castle, when and by whom built, 301
- Winifred's well, in Flintshire, its peculiarities described, 395
- Wolga river, 119
- Wolves of Norway, 73
- Wren, sir Christopher, his extensive knowledge, 211
- X.
- XERXES, his incredible army destroyed in Greece, 40
- Y.
- YORK, the city of, 218
- and Lancaster, competition of the families, of for the crown of England, 203, 204
- , New, the city of, evacuated by the Americans, and taken possession of by general Howe, 356. The province of, its situation, extent, and boundaries of, 902. Its counties and chief towns, 903. Rivers and capes, ibid. Climate, soil, and produce, ibid. Cities, population, and commerce, ibid. Religion and learning, 904. History and government, 904, 905. Places of public worship in that city, 904, note. Various religious denominations in the state of, id. ibid.
- Z.
- ZAKA, in Barbary, 798
- Zante island, 658
- Zealand, one of the United Provinces, its subdivisions and chief towns, 466
- , New, 985
- Zenobia, queen of Palmyra, reduced by the emperor Aurelian, 666
- Zibelin, description of that quadruped, 94
- Zinghis Khan, account of, 687. Invaded India, 730
- Zocotra, produce and inhabitants of that island, 841
- Zodiac, what, 11
- Zones, the divisions of the terrestrial globe by, 12
- Zuinglius, the protestant apostle of Switzerland, his character, 565
- Zurich, first of the Swiss cantons in opposing the tyranny of Albert, duke of Austria, 567