

Index

- at the Zoological Gardens, Berlin, 277.
- Rheinbeck, Lieutenant von Weise brings down three, 18; Lieutenant von Weise sees at Mtugata and Kragwe, 18.
- Rhodes, Mr., hunting tour with, 1.
- Rothrock seen at Katwe, 10.
- Roads and bridges in Congo Forest, 241; made by Congolese Government, 226.
- Ruanda, administration. By white men, 5; administration compared with that of Burundi, 45; administration of, 48; alteration advisable in, 51; agricultural possibilities of, 50; belief in transmigration of souls in, 44; tax collected by bondsmen of, 82; description of, 44; difference between Urundi and, 45; forms of greeting of natives, 55; health of inhabitants of, 50; I determine to march to via Lake Victoria, 2; Mildbraed among the mountains of, 10; mountaineering of, 17; military administration of, 48; outbreaks of very rare in, 50; power of Report of, 49; principle of government in, 35; secret murder practised in, 48; temperature of, 50; through to Lake Kiwu, 44; tribal division of the population, 47; wares, we get together an incomparable collection of, 62; we arrive at, 44.
- Ruasa, we meet Dr. Czakanowski at, 120; we visit the mission station at, 122.
- Rubber, cultivation of, in Congo State, 232; scarcity of, at Irumu, 232; yield of, at Mawambi, 243.
- Rufua, we arrive at, 20; we hurry forward to, 20.
- Rugege forest, charm of, described, 72; list of trees and tree shrubs in, 71; Mildbraed and Schubotz determine to visit, 63; Mildbraed's report on his expedition to, 64; temperature at night in, 70.
- Ruhikika, Sultan, we are welcomed by, 18.
- Ruisimba, we arrive at, 182.
- Rukarama, Mildbraed camps in vicinity of the, 69.
- Russoje, 38.
- Rutschuru, abundance of game at, 170; description of, 169; difficulty of crossing gorge at, 171; flora of, 175; lion hunt at, 171; our reception at, 169; plain of, fauna of, 170; second lion hunt at, 172;
- steppes, barrenness of, 17; temperature on the plain of, 168; we push on to, 150.
- Rutschuru River, Raven compelled to swim the, 175; we cross the, 169.
- Rwenzori, Czakanowski journeys to, 183; darkness of, 183; difficulties of provisions in, 181; difficulties of our journey to, 266; flora and fauna on our way to, 266; geological remarks concerning, 283; glaciers, 209; I get an excellent view of chain of mountains at, 198; population of, 181; pursuits of, 181; record from my diary of our journey to, 268; tombs of natives on the road to, 207.

S

- St. Gustave, the mission station of, 195.
- Sabiki, Mount, Kirschner's report on, 126; Lieutenant von Weise, the first European to climb, 126.
- Salambo, a large Wambutti camp at, 229.
- Salt, method of gathering at Katwe, 162.
- Salt Lake, an inland, at Katwe, 162.
- Sambia, we camp at, 195.
- Shampi, podocarpus seen in the Valley of the, 74.
- Schirati, military outpost of, 2.
- Schubotz, Dr., appointed zoologist, 3; ascends Ulumbi, 218; brings down a pair of giant touracos, 74; congratulates me on my killing of lion, 34; discovers an abundance of plankton, 41; leaves Mildbraed, to proceed to Lake Albert, 219; returns to camp, 28; sets out to make an investigation of swamp Irumu, 38; we miss, 28; visits Bugoie, 140.
- Selketti, of Namagira, 153.
- Scientific apparatus carried by expedition, 4.
- Sea-eagle, the, 98.
- Semliki, dangers of fording across, 169; elephant hunt on the, 186; sport in the valley of the, 185; through the valley of the, to the Kilo goldfields, 105; we make excursions on the, 184; we visit the British Commission on the, 221.
- Shore dwellers of Lake Albert Edward, we examine, 184.
- Signalling, methods of, 20.