

ment of all arrears for subscriptions, assessments, rents, and unpaid accounts.

22. Any member wilfully infringing any rule or regulation of the Club, or failing to pay his annual subscription by the first Monday in July, or failing for one month to pay any assessment, including the annual charge which may be made by the Committee to meet the expenses connected with the Launch, after the same shall have been levied or imposed, or being guilty of any ungentlemanly conduct, shall be liable to expulsion by a vote of two-thirds of the members present at any meeting specially held for that purpose, seven days' notice of such meeting having been previously given to the members.

23. Any member who shall withdraw, resign, or be expelled, shall forfeit all right or claim in or to the Club property or funds; and any member who shall be expelled shall forever thereafter be ineligible to be re-admitted a member, and no person who has been expelled or struck off as a defaulter, and not restored, shall be admitted to the Club or any of its entertainments. This rule shall also apply to those who have been excluded by ballot twice.

24. The Club shall be open every day for the reception of members at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and shall be closed and the lights extinguished at such hours as may be ordered by the Committee of Management; and no member shall be admitted into or remain in the Club after these hours on any pretence whatever, unless specially authorized by the Committee.

25. All members are to pay their bills for every expense they may incur in the Club before they leave the house.

26. Any cause of complaint that may arise is to be written, and signed by the member so complaining, in the Complaint Book established for that purpose, or by letter to the Secretary, which complaint must
