"Barlow Brothers Mammoth Minstrels opened at the Tabor last night with a show which goes through from start to finish with most refreshing snap. Not a moment is lost. The jokes are brief, crisp and pointed and a very fair percentage of them are new. The music is well selected and the soloists are above the average. The company is not so large as the Mastodon aggregation, which Jack Haverly affected in his palmy days, quality rather than quantity being the recommendation, though the programme is long and could be handled only by a management which insists on vim and "get up" in its artists

The company carries its own orchestra which appears on the stage in the regulation first part. The stage is handsomely hung with silken drapery. There are ten end men including Markham, the Kennards, the Morrisseys and James and Billy Barlow.

After this come several novelties in the form of olio and original specialty ideas, funmakers and acrobats. The house was large and applause frequent."—Denver News.

Barlow's Minstrels appear at the Victoria Theatre on Wednesday, December 6th.

FELLOW-SUFFERERS.

First Thin Man.—What makes you so thin, friend?

Second Thin Man.—Why, I'm a jockey!—been training to win races. What makes you so thin?

First Thin Man.—Well, I've been betting that you would win!

A DIFFERENCE.

Mrs. Sauers—I don't consider marriage a lottery, do you?

Mr. Sauers—No! if a man draws a blank in a lottery, he can tear it up and take another chance.

There may be but one pin in a girl's belt, and she may not see her young man more than once a month, but his hand will find it. —Atchison Globe.
